

CRUISE COMPASS

DAY 3 Monday, December 30, 2013

WELCOME TO PHUKET, SOUTHEAST ASIA'S DREAM DESTINATION.

Fashionable Phuket has long been luring tourists to its drop-dead-gorgeous beaches and dramatic bay scenery. Thailand's most famous island destination practically pioneered the whole industry in Southeast Asia. Once resorts started sprouting up along the coastline, Phuket seemingly developed overnight. Nowadays, this Andaman Sea beauty provides tourists with a nice contrast to bustling Bangkok, yet still has all the comforts you'd find in a cosmopolitan city.

Amid all the development, Phuket's natural wonders are still the main attraction. The beaches are where most folks go to relax, but there's plenty to do if you're up for an adventure. Go on a rainforest trek. Sail through the surreal landscape of limestone rock on Phang Nga Bay. Or hop on an elephant for an unforgettable ride. Haad Nai Yang National Park holds Phuket's largest coral reef, where giant leatherback turtles come to nest every year. Just a boat ride away is the island of Phi Phi. Its beach is "The Beach" from the famous film. And after a day in the sun, pamper yourself with a traditional Thai massage and experience first-hand this ancient art of healing.

Happening Onboard

1. Inline Skating & Climbing Under The Stars

So, you've mastered the Rock Climbing Wall and Inline Skating.

But have you tried them at night? Might be a whole different kind of challenge. Adults only can join the Sports Staff for some nocturnal inline skating and rock climbing. 6:00 pm - 9:30 pm, Sports Deck and Rock Climbing Wall, Decks 13, 14.

2. Rock & Roll Dance Party

Travel back to a time when poodle skirts and bobby socks ruled and rock'n roll was sweeping the country - the 50's. How low can you go? Join the gang for all the dancing fun! 10:00 pm, Studio B, Deck 3.
