OKA-215 SHURIJO CASTLE & KOKUSAI STREET (GUIDED IN ENGLISH)

You will visit/do: ① ②

Naha city delights with two premiere attractions, the exceptional Shuri Castle and the lively Kokusai Street. A motorcoach ride takes you to stately Shuri Castle, built in the late 1300s as the palace of the Ryukyu kings. Reconstructed on its original location and reopened in 1992, it is a UNESCO World Heritage site. Points of historical interest include the dramatic Shureimon Gate, the adjacent royal tombs and the main hall decorated in a striking red hue. A museum commands part of the interior, and the hilltop location provides panoramic views. Next, visit nearby Kokusai Street, a chic area considered the heart of Naha. Enjoy 50 minutes of free time to stroll down the street and explore cosmopolitan shops as well as the Makishi Public Market, where stalls are laden with local delicacies. This bustling "kitchen of Okinawa" is a delicious way to take in the sights and tastes of the region.

OKA-285 OKINAWA SHOPPING TOUR (ESCORTED IN ENGLISH)

You will visit/do: ③

Shop at two of Okinawa's shopping areas. Stop is Okinawa outlet mall Ashibinaa. ASHIBINAA is complete with attractions such as shopping and resort living, offering a great way to enjoy Okinawa. Outlet products are items that cannot be sold at catalogue price, such as discontinued items and sample products - although they are discounted, the quality is always excellent. Each shop is operated by an authorized distributor and an official agent, and is always full of tempting products! Please enjoy your time outlet shopping. Last stop is a Japanese drugstore. Japanese drugstores can be a wonderland of beauty and health products, ranging from incredibly useful things that you then wonder how you ever lived without, to the most pointless things that have you questioning why anyone ever thought they were necessary. You can stock up on things you won't find anywhere else! After the quality shopping, return to the pier.

Here, ceremonial altars were created from natural stone outcroppings, and ledges and caves jut dramatically over the sea. Then, you will also have the rare opportunity to go underground to explore Gyokusendo Cave, the second largest in the country. Last stop will be a guided hike through the Gangala Valley. A dramatic cave entrance sets the scene for your nature walk that reveals unusual foliage and dramatic views. You'll want to have a camera with you to capture some exceptional nature photography. You will enjoy the evening view of Naha during the driving around the city, and you have some time to shop around at Kokusai street. And then you will have Ryukyu (means Okinawan) style traditional dinner with enjoying to see the Ryukyu (means Okinawan) traditional dance. Ryukyu dance was started as a court dance in the 15th century in the Ryukyu Kingdom. It was originally performed to welcome envoys from China. The restrained nature of the dance is unique - emotions coming from the music build up inside the dancers, but they let only subtle movements express their feelings. The Ryukyu dance with traditional melody played by sanshin (three strings guitar) represents the crystallization of Okinawan culture and the colorful costumes both reflect and develop the weavers' and dyers' arts.
