Curran & sisalcarpet.com is an online boutique retailer of luxury outdoor furniture and bespoke floor coverings with offices in Seattle, New York, and Amsterdam.

For 30 years, the Curran sales team has delivered industry-leading customer service to our designer, trade, and hospitality clients, as well as design-oriented residential consumers. We also offer a premium e-commerce experience that allows customers to build and order a completely custom rug online. Our thoughtfully curated catalog showcases a range of styles, from traditional to ultra-modern, but maintains a consistent emphasis on quality craftsmanship, sustainability, and innovative design.

We're proud of the products we sell, especially our proprietary SynSisal® flooring range, and we believe our selection is unique and forward-thinking, representing the best in transitional and modern design. In addition, we have exclusive partnerships with pioneering European furniture & flooring manufacturers that set new standards for eco-design in the luxury market.

We are always developing innovative new products, building partnerships with brands that share our values, and investing in our team and customers to provide the best possible retail experience.
