ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Roberto Díaz (Viola '84)

A violist of international reputation, Roberto Díaz ('84) is president and CEO of the Curtis Institute of Music, following in the footsteps of renowned soloist/directors such as Josef Hofmann, Efrem Zimbalist, and Rudolf Serkin.

As a soloist, Mr. Díaz collaborates with leading conductors of our time on stages throughout the world. He has also worked directly with important 20th- and 21st-century composers, including Krzysztof Penderecki—whose viola concerto he has performed numerous times with the composer on the podium and whose double concerto he premiered in the United States—as well as Edison Denisov, Jennifer Higdon, Ricardo Lorenz, and Roberto Sierra.

A frequent recitalist, Mr. Díaz enjoys collaborating with young musicians, bringing a fresh approach to the repertoire and providing invaluable opportunities to artists at the beginning of their careers. In addition to performing with major string quartets and pianists in chamber music series and festivals worldwide, he is a member of the Díaz Trio. His recordings include a Grammy-winning performance of the Jennifer Higdon Viola Concerto, a Grammy-nominated disc of viola transcriptions by William Primrose for Naxos, and releases on the Artek, Bridge Records, Dorian, Nimbus, and New World labels.

In addition to his decade-long tenure as principal viola of the Philadelphia Orchestra, Mr. Díaz was also principal viola of the National Symphony under Mstislav Rostropovich and was a member of the Boston Symphony and the Minnesota Orchestra. He is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music and the Curtis Institute of Music, where he continues to serve on the faculty, holding the James and Betty Matarese Chair in Viola Studies and the Nina von Maltzahn President's Chair. Mr. Díaz plays the ex-Primrose Amati viola.

Juliette Tacchino (Opera '25)

Described by Le Devoir as “an excellent actress with impeccable projection and style,” soprano Juliette Tacchino is garnering acclaim for her artistry and stage presence. In the 2025–26 season, she stars in the premiere stage adaptation of Les Demoiselles de Rochefort at the Théâtre du Lido in Paris and tours throughout the United States in chamber music concerts and recitals. She won the special jury prize at the 2024 Sumi Jo International Singing Competition and the 2024 French Riviera Masters Competition at the Opéra de Nice Côte d'Azur.

In 2024–25, Juliette performed with Opéra Fuoco in France under Maestro David Stern, where she presented a recital at the Château d'Écouen, and performed the soprano soloist role in William Boyce's Solomon at the Opéra de Massy. She also made role debuts as Susanna in Le nozze di Figaro under Nicholas McGegan and in Candide under David-Charles Abell with Curtis Opera Theatre, performed Claude Vivier's Lonely Child with the Curtis Symphony Orchestra, and joined internationally renowned soprano Sumi Jo on tour in China and South Korea.

Other performance highlights include concert performances of Mélisande (Pelléas et Mélisande) and Sophie (Der Rosenkavalier) with Curtis Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Yannick Nézet-Séguin, as well as performing roles on stage, including Ginevra (Ariodante), Thérèse (Les Mamelles de Tirésias), Vixen (The Cunning Little Vixen), and as a featured soloist in a staged production of Handel's L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato. In concert, Juliette appeared as the soprano soloist in Mozart's Requiem with the Binghamton Philharmonic, Mahler's Symphony No. 4 with the Université de Montréal Orchestra, and Handel's Dixit Dominus and Dettingen Te Deum with Monte-Carlo Chamber Orchestra.

Juliette received her Master of Music degree from Curtis Institute of Music and her bachelor's degree from Université de Montréal.

Tzu-Yi Yu, clarinet

Tzu-Yi Yu, from Taoyuan City, Taiwan, is a clarinet student at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, studying with Anthony McGill and YaoGuang Zhai. He entered the school in 2022 and holds the Valerija and Ladislaus Medveckis Fellowship. As a soloist, Mr. Yu has performed in several countries including Taiwan, Japan, France, China, and the United States. He was a prizewinner at the 2020 and 2019 Buffet Clarinet competitions held in Taiwan and China, respectively.

Mr. Yu is also a passionate performer of chamber and orchestral music. As an orchestra member, he has collaborated with many world-renowned conductors such as Yannick Nézet-Séguin, Miguel Harth-Bedoya, Osmo Vänskä, Robert Spano, Michael Stern, and Teddy Abrams. Mr. Yu started studying the clarinet at age nine and previously studied with Wei-Leng Chen and Anthony Wong.

Adrian Zaragoza, piano

Adrian Zaragoza—a pianist of South American heritage from Davis, California—began his musical journey at age four. He currently holds the William A. Horn Fellowship at the Curtis Institute of Music, studying under the esteemed Michelle Cann.

His musical prowess has been shaped by the guidance of renowned mentors such as Richard Cionco, John McCarthy, Lara Downes, and Marjorie McBee. Adrian's talent and dedication have earned him many honors, including being named a 2022 National YoungArts Finalist and securing top prizes in prominent competitions such as the Singapore, Nordic, and Arthur Fraser international piano competitions.

He has captivated audiences in performances with the Central Texas Philharmonic, Golden State Youth Symphony Orchestra, UC Davis Symphony Orchestra, and the Solano Symphony Orchestra, as well through broadcasts on Philadelphia's WRTI Radio and Vienna Live with Simeon Morrow.

In November 2023, Adrian made his much-anticipated debut at Lincoln Center's David Geffen Hall, where he passionately showcased contemporary solo works. Beyond his professional accomplishments, Adrian is dedicated to giving back to his community—performing at retirement homes and volunteering—and cherishes the beauty of the outdoors.
