26. Musical Chairs

1. Brief Description

“Musical Chairs” is a fun and interactive game where participants walk around a set of chairs while music plays. When the music stops, players must quickly find a seat. One participant is eliminated in each round until only one winner remains. The game tests alertness, speed, and reflexes in an exciting environment.

2. Objectives

- To provide a fun and engaging activity for participants
- To improve alertness and quick decision-making
- To encourage participation and sportsmanship
- To create an enjoyable and energetic atmosphere

3. Event Format / Flow

Step 1: Registration

Participants will register individually for the event.

Step 2: Setup

Chairs will be arranged in a circle facing outward. The number of chairs will always be one less than the number of participants.

Step 3: Game Rounds

Round 1: All participants walk around the chairs while music plays. When the music stops, players must quickly sit on a chair.

One player who fails to get a chair is eliminated.

Next Rounds: After each round, one chair is removed, and the game continues.

Final Round: The last two participants compete for the final chair. The one who secures the chair wins the game.

4. Judging Criteria

- Alertness and reaction time
- Speed in securing a chair
- Fair play and discipline

5. Participation Details

- Open to all students
- Individual participation only
- Basic instructions will be given before the game starts
