Engage, Enthuse, Enhance and Embed

Students and teachers at SZPAG are changing the way children learn with innovative uses of technology. Our leaders and teachers have embedded technology within the curriculum to redefine learning. We use iPads to improve independence, ownership of learning, creativity, literacy and much more. Apple technology helps us enthuse students by creating exciting learning environments and interactive activities for students to improve their skills. SZPAG students are digital leaders, not just digital learners, and they are building their skills for the future in school today.
