ROZ WILSON

Commission a bespoke painting from the UK's foremost auto artist.

In the last several years, Roz Wilson has undertaken commissions from a wide range of individuals and corporations. In addition to portraits for people who love their car or who want to give a very personal gift to someone else who does, she has painted classic cars in full festive regalia at weddings, cars that people aspire to own one day, famous cars from favourite movies, winning cars from big races, the list is endless.

Roz Wilson's lifelong passion for anything with an engine combines with her outstanding creative talent to capture the sensuality and mystique of the world's most exciting and beautiful cars, motorbikes and planes. Her exquisitely detailed original paintings are created with huge affection and extreme accuracy and have won her countless awards, an unrivalled reputation in her field, and a massive following amongst both vehicle enthusiasts and art lovers in general.

"I am fascinated by the effect of reflections in the car's curved surfaces which introduces an almost abstract element, and I feel that every subject has a distinctive set of characteristics that I aim to capture and convey. I enjoy working closely with clients to ensure that the bespoke paintings of their cherished vehicle exceeds their hopes and expectations."
