LADY LARA

There are superyachts and then there's Lady Lara. Exceeding expectations on all levels, at 91m she offers every kind of luxury under the sun, literally. Her impressive volume is awe-inspiring. There's a dedicated spa area on the bridge deck, complete with treatment room, hammam, beauty salon and fully equipped gym.

STAND OUT IN EVERY WAY

On the main deck there's a swimming pool. By day it's the perfect place to cool off and refresh, by night it can be transformed into to a dancefloor while the bespoke music system takes care of the soundtrack. Opulent without being ostentatious, Lady Lara accommodates up to 12 guests in eight cabins.

Just as on the inside, Lady Lara's decks provide a multitude of ways to spend your time. With not one but two pools, one on the sun deck with a swim-up bar and one on the main deck, guests will have every opportunity to stay refreshed.

SERIOUS ABOUT LEISURE

The Owner's deck offers seamless indoor/outdoor dining with a glass enclosure creating a unique setting that becomes part of the interior space. The large private terrace is directly accessible from the Owner's suite and has a Jacuzzi and a large foredeck area, perfect for yoga.

There's relaxation on offer at the water's level too; the beach club is an additional area with sun loungers, seating and a sauna and steam room while tenders are launched from the other side.

Light and fresh, the interior is expansive but welcoming. Large windows fill the spaces with natural light adding to the airy feeling on board.

SPACE AND TIME

The variety of areas means there is space for everyone should guests wish to socialise together or spend time privately. Options abound.
