About

1. The Mid Atlantic Purchasing Team represents the memorandum of agreement between Baltimore Regional Cooperative Purchasing Committee (BRCPC) and the Metro Washington Council of Governments to work together to aggregate our buying power to even larger volumes.
2. No fee to participate from the public entity, but vender must report all sales and terms.
3. No prior approval necessary from MAPT for non-member public entities due to the contractual use of broad, sweeping cooperative terms that allows maximum participation.

Instructions for use

1. Quote and award must state the MAPT contract IFB # 2105-42
2. The prices are for inside delivered and placed including removing packaging.
3. Quote must be to the public entity at the awarded discount and against the award pricer. Distribution partners may not mark-up the awarded prices; Inscape pays a rebate.
4. Installation (proposal 9) may be utilized as a separate line item in conjunction with proposal 1 items when building or set-up of the product is necessary in addition to un-boxing (e.g. systems furniture, Reform walls). Installation may not be used with Proposal 5 items.
5. All quotes must be summed per Proposal Number. (i.e. #1=$9,474 net, #5=$5,555 net)
6. There are no discount volume tiers.
7. An award may be issued to Inscape direct or in our distribution partner's name. Direct awards or the partner's Purchase Order to Inscape shall contain ONLY the awarded items at the awarded rates. If other non-contract items are quoted (e.g. Ergo, Seating) they should be at standard commercial rates and ordered with a separate PO that does not reference this vehicle.
8. No coordination or advance permission is necessary from MAPT for a non-member public entities to utilize this cooperative vehicle; reporting to MAPT will executed by Inscape post award.
