Office Specialty Launches Two Storage Collections in New Chicago Showroom

From June 13th-15th, Office Specialty will debut 2Stor and L Storage collections

HOLLAND LANDING, ON — June 2022 — Office Specialty will debut its two new collections, 2Stor and L Storage, at the industry's largest three-day event on June 13th-15th. Located at Inscape's brand new Chicago showroom, 800 West Fulton Market, 8th Floor, the product lineup will focus on the brand's exceptional attention to quality and emphasis on customization and adaptability. The new, versatile collections show off Office Specialty's 130-year dedication to craftsmanship and material innovation to create long-lasting pieces.

The new collections, yet to be released, include:

2Stor: Store more, and do it in style with 2Stor. With its round edges, effortless integration capabilities, and variety of customization options, 2Stor is the perfect affordable solution for workspaces wanting value and versatility. 2Stor is a product line that has the modern workplace in mind. From touchdown and assigned seating to transitional zones, it is a simple system that meets the needs of all customers and gives everyone a place to store their belongings safely. Featuring seven new product lines, Caddy, Pedestal, Mobile Storage, Lockers, Waste & Recycle, Accessories, and Pull-Out Towers, the 2Stor collection offers various storage options for smaller items such as bags and books to larger items such as jackets. With hundreds of color and finish combinations to choose from, the 2Stor collection is exceptionally versatile and uniquely customizable for employees while also coordinating with various office styles freestanding or in tandem with other Office Specialty products.

L Storage: Feel at home in your space with the warm tones of the new L Storage collection. The L Storage collection is the perfect "one-stop-shop" for laminate storage. The freestanding storage collection offers eight new products, including a Rolling Pedestal, a BBF or Box/Box/File Pedestal, a Stretch Pedestal with Hinged Doors, a Credenza with Drawers and Side Cubbies, a Credenza with Drawers and Top/Bottom Cubbies, a Narrow Tower with Bottom Cubby, a Six-Cubby Locker, and a Locker Tower with an Open Closet. L Storage is clean and modern, and the laminate material, offered in a variety of custom colors, presents a shift from the metal aesthetic to a more residential look for the office.

The 2Stor and L Storage collections are designed for the ever-changing workplace. These storage solutions are made to keep up, with modular interiors that can be retrofitted with new accessories as you need them. With 2Stor and L Storage, anyone can build something entirely unique to fit the office of their future.

Office Specialty will also be hosting a party on Monday, June 13th from 4-8 PM CST. Located at 800 West Fulton Market, 18th Floor, the party will provide beautiful views, great music, food, and drinks. To RSVP, please contact Office Specialty's PR team: inscape@upspringpr.com.
