We are seeking a creative, patient, and enthusiastic Dungeons & Dragons Instructor (Dungeon Master) to lead tabletop role-playing game sessions for children ages 5 and up. Our ideal candidate enjoys storytelling, collaboration, and teaching social skills through imaginative gameplay in a safe, inclusive, and age-appropriate environment.

Responsibilities:

- Plan and run age-appropriate Dungeons & Dragons sessions
- Teach game rules, character creation, and basic role-playing concepts
- Guide children through collaborative storytelling and problem-solving
- Encourage teamwork, creativity, and respectful play
- Adapt gameplay to different ages, experience levels, and group dynamics
- Maintain a positive, inclusive, and welcoming environment
- Manage group behavior with patience and clear expectations
- Communicate with parents or staff as needed regarding progress and participation

What Do You Bring?

- Experience playing Dungeons & Dragons or similar tabletop role-playing games
- Experience working with children
- Strong storytelling and improvisation skills
- Patience, reliability, and enthusiasm
- Comfortable leading small groups of children
