8. Delivery

- a. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, delivery times or delivery dates stated shall never be considered a fatal term.
- b. Any exceeding of the delivery times or delivery dates does not constitute the right for the Other party to rescind the agreement in full unless the excess amounts to more than 16 weeks. - b.  - f. The rights of the Other party with respect to this warranty clause are restricted to a lack of conformity caused by defects, faulty materials and failures in the Products or workmanship which appear under proper use, in conformity with the operational and first-line-maintenance manual.
 - g. This guarantee shall not include consumables, wear and tear parts and/or spare parts. However, under this warranty the Other party is obliged to send a written order and SUSS MicroTec shall, after receipt of the order, free of charge, supply to the Other party the replacement of the parts as ordered, or, at SUSS MicroTec's option, repair such parts as ordered or have them repaired at SUSS MicroTec's order. SUSS MicroTec shall solely exercise this right when the Other party is, or ought to be, capable to replace the part. In case the Other party insists that the replacement of such a part has to be done by employees of SUSS MicroTec, all travelling and housing costs including expenses and allowances are for the account of the Other Party.
 - i. Defective parts under the warranty are to be returned to SUSS MicroTec within 30 (thirty) days after the defective parts have been replaced. If the defective part is not returned to SUSS MicroTec the claim becomes invalid.

13. Force Majeure

- a. The Other party and SUSS MicroTec are released from responsibility for partial or complete non-fulfilment of their obligations and/or liabilities under the agreement, if this non-fulfilment is caused by circumstances of force majeure, namely:

- e. The Other party shall indemnify SÜSS MicroTec against any final award of damages or costs for infringements as defined in paragraph 15c and shall reimburse all costs incurred by SÜSS MicroTec, in defending any suit for such infringement and if so requested, shall give full
