The financial year in which the term of office begins is not counted. Reappointments are permitted. If a Supervisory Board member resigns before the end of their term of office, a successor shall be elected for the remainder of the term of office of the resigning Supervisory Board member, subject to paragraph (3), unless the Annual General Meeting resolves a longer term of office, which may not, however, exceed the term of office pursuant to sentence 1.
- (3) When electing a member of the Supervisory Board, a substitute member may be elected at the same time, who will become a member of the Supervisory Board if the Supervisory Board member resigns before the end of his or her term of office. Elections are conducted by the oldest member of the Supervisory Board present in terms of age. They are carried out by a simple majority of votes. If a simple majority of votes is not achieved in the first round of voting, a further election is held among the persons with the two highest numbers of votes. In this further election, the highest number of votes or, in the event of a tie, the lot to be drawn by the oldest Supervisory Board member present in terms of age shall be decisive.
- (3) The resignation of the Chairman before the end of his term of office shall not affect the continued office of the Deputy Chairman. The same applies vice versa.
