The provisions of the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) on which these shareholder rights are based read as follows:

Section 122 AktG Convocation at the Request of a Minority

- (1) The Shareholders' Meeting is to be convened wherever stockholders, whose shares of stock, in the aggregate, are at least equivalent to one twentieth of the equity capital, demand that it be so convened, doing so in writing and citing the purpose and the reasons therefor; the demand is to be addressed to the management board. The articles of incorporation may tie the right to demand that the Shareholders' Meeting be convened to a different form and to possession of a lesser portion of the equity capital. The petitioners are to submit proof that they have been holders of the shares of stock since at least ninety (90) days prior to the date on which their demand is received, and that they will continue to so hold the shares until the management board takes a decision regarding their petition. Section 121 (7) shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (2) In like manner, stockholders whose shares of stock, in the aggregate, are at least equivalent to one twentieth of the equity capital, or to a stake of 500,000 euros, may demand that items of business be set out in the agenda and be published by notice. Each new item must be accompanied by supporting information or a formal resolution proposal. The demand in the sense of the first sentence must be received by the Company at the latest twenty-four (24) days (thirty (30) in the case of listed companies) prior to the general meeting; the date of its receipt shall not be included in calculating the period.
- (3) Where the demand is not complied with, the court may grant authority to the stockholders who have raised the demand to convene the Shareholders' Meeting or to publish by notice the item of business. Concurrently, the court may determine the chairman of the general meeting. The invitation convening the general meeting or the notice must indicate the authorization by the court. A complaint may permissibly be lodged against the decision taken. The claimants must prove that they will hold the shares until the court has reached a decision.
- (4) The Company shall bear the costs of the Shareholders' Meeting and, in the case governed by subsection (3), also the court costs if the court has complied with the petition.

Section 124 AktG (excerpt)

- (1) Where the minority pursuant to section 122 (2) has demanded that items of business be set out in the agenda, said items of business are to be published by notice either together with the invitation convening the general meeting or, if that is not the case, without undue delay after the demand has been received. Section 121 (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis; moreover, in the case of companies listed on the stock exchange, section 121 (4a) shall apply mutatis mutandis. The notice is to be published and forwarded in the same way as the invitation convening the general meeting.

Section 121 AktG General Information (excerpt)

- (4) Notice of the invitation convening the general meeting is to be given in the Company's publications of record. Where the stockholders of the company are known by name, the Shareholders' Meeting may be convened by registered letter unless stipulated otherwise in the articles of incorporation; the date on which the invitation is posted shall be deemed the date of the notice.
- (4a) In the case of companies listed on the stock exchange that have not issued exclusively registered shares of stock or that do not directly send the invitation convening the general meeting to the stockholders pursuant to (4)(2), the invitation convening the general meeting is to be forwarded, at the latest as per the time of the notice, to such media for publication regarding which it can be assumed that they will disseminate the information in the entire European Union.
- (7) In the case of deadlines and dates calculated back from the meeting, the day of the meeting shall not be included. A transfer from a Sunday, a Saturday, or a public holiday to a preceding or following working day is not possible. Sections 187 to 193 of the German Civil Code shall not apply mutatis mutandis. In the case of unlisted companies, the articles of incorporation may stipulate a different calculation period.

Section 70 AktG

If the exercise of rights arising from the share is dependent on the shareholder having been the holder of the share for a certain period of time, a claim for transfer of ownership against a credit institution, financial services institution, or an enterprise operating in accordance with Section 53 (1)(1) or Section 53b (1)(1) or (7) of the German Banking Act shall be equivalent to ownership. The period of ownership of a predecessor in title shall be attributed to the shareholder if they acquired the share free of charge, from their trustee, as a universal successor, in the event of the dissolution of a community, or in the event of a portfolio transfer pursuant to Section 13 of the German Insurance Supervision Act or Section 14 of the German Building Loan Association Act.

Section 131 AktG Shareholders' Right to Information

- (1) Every shareholder may request information at the Shareholders' Meeting from the Management Board regarding the Company's affairs provided that such information is necessary for a reasonable assessment of the items on the agenda. The duty to provide information also extends to the Company's legal and business relationships with an affiliated company. If a company makes use of the simplifications pursuant to Section 266 (1)(3), Section 276 or Section 288 of the German Commercial Code, every shareholder may demand that the annual financial statements be presented to them at the Shareholders' Meeting on the annual financial statements in the form that would have been used if these simplifications had not been made. The duty of the Management Board of a parent company (Section 290 (1), (2) of the German Commercial Code) to provide information at the Shareholders' Meeting to which the consolidated financial statements and the Group management report are submitted also extends to the situation of the Group and the companies included in the consolidated financial statements.
- (2) This information shall comply with the principles of conscientious and faithful accounting. The articles of incorporation or the Company bylaws pursuant to Section 129 may authorize the chair of the meeting to impose reasonable time limits on the shareholders' right to ask questions and to speak, and may specify further details.
- (3) The Management Board may refuse to provide information
 1. insofar as the provision of the information is likely, according to reasonable business judgment, to cause the Company or an affiliated company a not inconsiderable disadvantage;
 2. insofar as it relates to tax valuations or the amount of individual taxes;
 3. on the difference between the value at which items have been recognized in the annual balance sheet and a higher value of such items, unless the Shareholders' Meeting adopts the annual financial statements;
 4. on the accounting and valuation methods, insofar as the disclosure of these methods in the notes is sufficient to provide a true and fair view of the net assets, financial position, and results of operations of the Company within the meaning of Section 264 (2) of the German Commercial Code; this shall not apply if the Shareholders' Meeting adopts the annual financial statements;
 5. insofar as the Management Board would render itself liable to prosecution by providing the information;

6. insofar as, in the case of a credit institution or a financial services institution, disclosures need not be made in the annual financial statements, management report, consolidated financial statements, or Group management report regarding the accounting and valuation methods applied and offsetting made;
 7. Insofar as the information is continuously accessible on the Company's website for at least seven days prior to the beginning of and during the Shareholders' Meeting.

Information may not be withheld for other reasons.

- (4) If a shareholder has been provided with information outside the Shareholders' Meeting due to their status as a shareholder, such information shall be provided to any other shareholder upon request at the Shareholders' Meeting, even if it is not necessary for a reasonable assessment of the items on the agenda. The Management Board may not refuse to provide information pursuant to (3)(1)(1) to (4). (1) and (2) shall not apply if a subsidiary (Section 290 (1), (2) of the German Commercial Code), a joint venture (Section 310 (1) of the German Commercial Code), or an associated company (Section 311 (1) of the German Commercial Code) provides the information to a parent company (Section 290 (1), (2) of the German Commercial Code) for the purpose of including the company in the consolidated financial statements of the parent company and the information is required for this purpose.
- (5) If a shareholder is refused information, they may request that their question and the reason for which the information was refused be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
