

Detroit Harmony

Music education for every student in Detroit

Job creation for Detroit adults and teens

A scalable and sustainable citywide collaboration that improves child development through music education and arts-based learning, while also growing economic opportunity by employing Detroiters in the provision of instruments and music education.

- Access to Instruments – acquiring, rehabilitating and distributing instruments
- Multiple Pathways to Music Instruction – universal access to in-school and out-of-school music instruction
- Music Exposure leading to Music Literacy – a portfolio of live and digital music experiences
- Arts-based Support for Core Teaching (STEAM) – high quality arts-based curriculum modules that offer students alternative ways of learning core subjects
- Social Support for Music Making – empowering parents and families to actively support children in their music-making
- Spaces for Making Music – assuring that children have safe spaces to practice, collaborate and perform in their neighborhoods

A strong cable doesn't break