

Mother Earth, Beloved Garden

Moth - er Earth, be - lov - ed gar - den, liv - ing trea - sure un - der foot,
 Fa - ther Air, your in - spi - ra - tion holds to - geth - er all that lives.
 Broth - er Fi - re, great trans - form - er, share the pas - sion of the sun.
 Sis - ter Wa - ter, e - ver flow - ing, o - cean, ri - ver, pond and rain.
 Lov - er Spi - rit, in - tu - i - tion in the cent - er of our souls.

All our days you ground our be - ing: sage and this - tle, grass and root.
 As we breathe, our minds see clear - ly, lead - ing us to love and give.
 In our hearths, your warmth re - vives us, cooks our food and heats our homes.
 Drink we now and quench our thirst - ing; cleanse us, we be - gin a - gain.
 In your love we find re - la - tion. All con - nect - ed, we are whole.

Herbs to heal us, plants to feed us, land to till and tend and plow.
 Rag - ing whirl - wind, whis - pered breez - es, vio - lent gale and gen - tle cloud.
 Flam - ing can - dle, blood with - in us, blaz - ing des - ert, will to grow.
 Mist and ice, a host of chang - es: all that cour - age will al - low.
 Time - less mys - tery, qui - et con - science, deep - est val - ues, voice in - side.

With the pen - dant, deep as mid - night, North we ask you: be here now.
 With the blade as sharp as morn - ing, East we ask you: be here now.
 With the wand, di - rect - ing pow - er, South we ask you: be here now.
 With the cup, the hol - y cha - lice, West we ask you: be here now.
 With the drum and with the cauld - ron, this we ask you: be our guide.
