

Chant for the Seasons

♩ = 80

Unison A#m

A#m

E#

Autumn: Sum - mer - time has turned the star-wheel, au - tumn is up - Winter: Au - tumn cold has turned the star-wheel, win - ter is up -
Spring: Win - ter rains have turned the star-wheel, spring-time is up -
Summer: Ver - nal clouds have turned the star-wheel, sum - mer is up -

4

A#m

C#

C#

-on us. Sweet the ang-ling sun, sweet up - on the
 -on us. Grey the wind-y storms, cold up - on our
 -on us. Sharp the smell of loam, burst - ing in our
 -on us. Glid - ing are the hawks, ho - ver - ing a -

7

G#7

C#

A#m air the smell of blue mist ri - sing. Sum - mer - time has cheeks the wet rain glist - ens, glist - ens. Au - tumn cold has eyes the tur - rets of the tu - lip. Win - ter rains have -bove the hot and yel - low hill - side. Ver - nal clouds have

🕯 Words: Mark L. Belletini, 1949 - , © 1992 Unitarian Universalist Association
 Music: Czech folk song, harmony © 1992 Unitarian Universalist Association

🕯 Arranged by Grace Lewis-McLaren, 1939 -
 Singing the Living Tradition #73

Public Domain and UUA owned, no expiration

PRAHA
 Irregular

Chant for the Seasons - 2

10 A#m E# A#m C#

turned the star-wheel, au-tumn is up-on us. Glor-i-ous the turned the star-wheel, win-ter is up-on us. Leap-ing is the turned the star-wheel, spring-time is up-on us. Green-ing is the turned the star-wheel, sum-mer is up-on us. Crick-ets in the trees, glor-i-ous the sight of rust leaves fall-ing, fall-ing.

14 C# G#7 C#

 fire, gold-en in the glass the ci-der glows like am-ber.
 grass; soft up-on our brows the sun-light warm car-ess-es.
 night, chirp-ing in our ears the sound of moon-lit mu-sic.

17 A#m A#m E# A#m A#

Sum-mer-time has turned the star-wheel, au-tumn is up-on us.
 Au-tumn cold has turned the star-wheel, win-ter is up-on us.
 Win-ter rains have turned the star-wheel, spring-time is up-on us.
 Ver-nal clouds have turned the star-wheel, sum-mer is up-on us.