

Chant for the Seasons

♩ = 80

Unison Bm

Bm

F#

Autumn: Sum - mer - time has turned the star-wheel, au - tumn is up - Winter: Au - tumn cold has turned the star-wheel, win - ter is up -
Spring: Win - ter rains have turned the star-wheel, spring-time is up -
Summer: Ver - nal clouds have turned the star-wheel, sum - mer is up -

4

Bm

D

D

-on us. Sweet the ang - ling sun, sweet up - on the
 -on us. Grey the wind - y storms, cold up - on our
 -on us. Sharp the smell of loam, burst - ing in our
 -on us. Glid - ing are the hawks, ho - ver - ing a -

7

A7

D

Bm

air the smell of blue mist ri - sing. Sum - mer - time has cheeks the wet rain glist - ens, glist - ens. Au - tumn cold has eyes the tur - rets of the tu - lip. Win - ter rains have -bove the hot and yel - low hill - side. Ver - nal clouds have

🕯 Words: Mark L. Belletini, 1949 - , © 1992 Unitarian Universalist Association
 Music: Czech folk song, harmony © 1992 Unitarian Universalist Association

🕯 Arranged by Grace Lewis-McLaren, 1939 -
 Singing the Living Tradition #73

Public Domain and UUA owned, no expiration

PRAHA
 Irregular

Chant for the Seasons - 2

10 Bm F# Bm D

turned the star - wheel, au - tumn is up - on us. Glor - i - ous the turned the star - wheel, win - ter is up - on us. Leap - ing is the turned the star - wheel, spring - time is up - on us. Green - ing is the turned the star - wheel, sum - mer is up - on us. Crick - ets in the trees, glor - i - ous the sight of rust leaves fall - ing, fall - ing.

14 D A7 D

fire, gold - en in the glass the ci - der glows like am - ber.
grass; soft up - on our brows the sun - light warm car - ess - es.
night, chirp - ing in our ears the sound of moon - lit mu - sic.

17 Bm Bm F# Bm B

Sum - mer - time has turned the star - wheel, au - tumn is up - on us.
Au - tumn cold has turned the star - wheel, win - ter is up - on us.
Win - ter rains have turned the star - wheel, spring - time is up - on us.
Ver - nal clouds have turned the star - wheel, sum - mer is up - on us.