

Not in Vain the Distance Beacons

$\text{♩} = 69$ A A E7 A E7 A E A

1. Not in vain the dis - tance bea - cons. For - ward, for - ward
 2. Oh, we see the cres - cent prom - ise of that spir - it
 3. Yea, we dip in - to the fut - ure, far as hu - man

4 A E A A E7 A E7

let us range. Let the great world spin for - ev - er has not set; an - cient founts of in - spi - ra - tion eye can see, see the vi - sion of the world, and

7 A G#dim A E7 A

down the ring - ing grooves of change;
 well through all our fan - cies yet;
 all the won - der that shall be,

Words: Alfred Lord Tennyson, 1809-1892
 Music: Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770-1827
 Singing the Living Tradition #143
 Public Domain, no expiration

HYMN TO JOY
 8.7.8.7.D.

Not in Vain the Distance Beacons - 2

9

E A E A

through the shad - ow of the globe we and we doubt not through the a - ges hear the war - drum throb no long - er,

11

E7 C#7 F#m B7 E A A D A7

sweep a - head to heights sub - lime, we, the heirs of one in - creas - ing pur - pose runs, and the thoughts of see the bat - tle flags all furled, in the par - lia -

14

Dsus Bm Dsus Bm A E7 A E7 A

all the a - ges, in the fore - most files of time.
all are wid - ened with the pro - cess of the suns.
-ment of free - dom, fed - er - a - tion of the world.