

Not in Vain the Distance Beacons

♩ = 69 E♭ E♭ B♭7 E♭ B♭7 E♭ B♭ E♭ E♭ B♭

1. Not in vain the dis-tance bea-cons. For-ward, for-ward let us range.
2. Oh, we see the cres-cent prom-ise of that spir-it has not set;
3. Yea, we dip in - to the fut - ure, far as hu-man eye can see,

5 E♭ E♭ B♭7 E♭ B♭7 E♭ Ddim E♭

Let the great world spin for - ev - er down the ring - ing an - cient founts of in - spi - ra - tion well through all our see the vi - sion of the world, and all the won - der

8 B♭7 E♭ B♭ E♭ B♭ E♭

grooves of change; through the shad - ow of the globe we fan - cies yet; and we doubt not through the a - ges that shall be, hear the war - drum throb no long - er,

11 B♭7 G7 Cm F7 B♭ E♭ E♭ A♭ E♭7

sweep a - head to heights sub - lime, we, the heirs of one in - creas - ing pur - pose runs, and the thoughts of see the bat - tle flags all furled, in the par - lia -

14 A♭ sus Fm A♭ sus Fm E♭ B♭7 E♭ B♭7 E♭

all the a - ges, in the fore - most files of time.
all are wid - ened with the pro - cess of the suns.
-ment of free - dom, fed - er - a - tion of the world.

Words: Alfred Lord Tennyson, 1809-1892
Music: Ludwig van Beethoven, 1770-1827
Singing the Living Tradition #143 Public Domain, no expiration

HYMN TO JOY
8.7.8.7.D.