

Sage @ home

Welcome to our first e-newsletter!

WINNER!

Lola's seahorse impressed the judges and won her a £25 voucher!

Click here to enter our next competition!

We're here for you

You said: you want answers - now

We did: introduced live chat on our website - find out more... >

You said: you're struggling with antisocial behaviour

We did: increased our ASB support - meet our new ASB officer... >

You said: you can't get hold of us

We did: expanded our customer care team and hired 83 new people...>

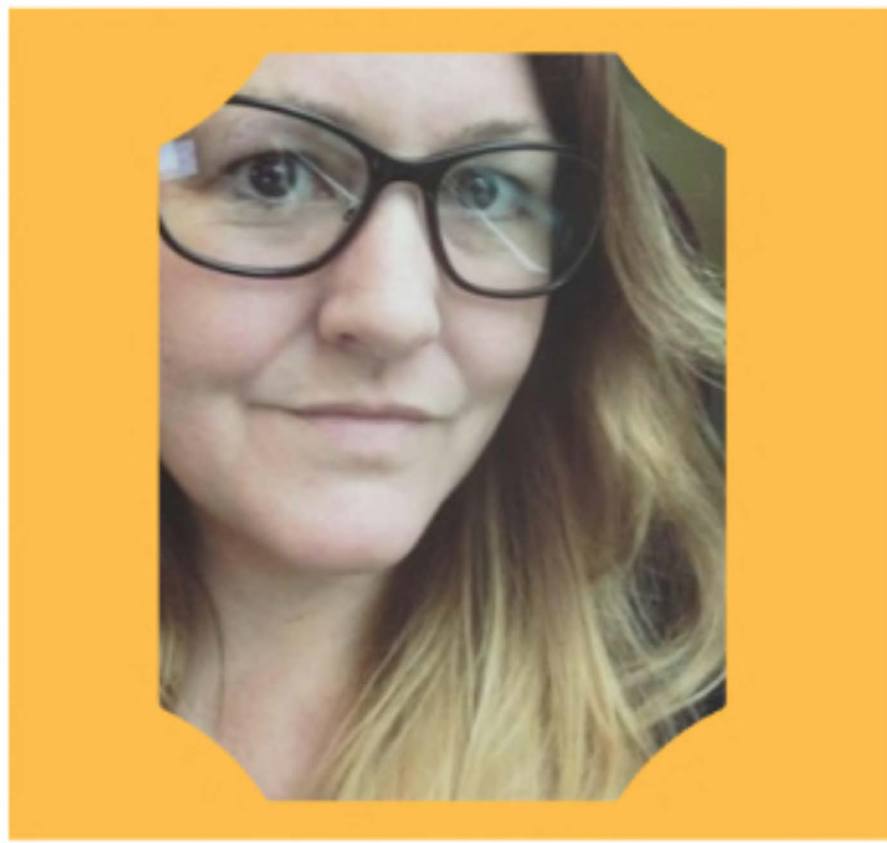

You said: we're not listening

We did: got our Customer Scrutiny Panel working for you... >

You said: our website is confusing

We did: created a brand new website with access technology... >

Meet our customer team

Sign up to an online session, asking your questions to our Head of Customer Service and other senior leaders

Sign up now

Money matters

Helpful tips from our Financial Wellbeing Team

Energy price cap

What is the energy price cap and how does it affect you?

Learn online

We're partnering with Barclays to offer you tailored online training

Making changes

Read about small improvements to uplift communal areas

Delivering actual change

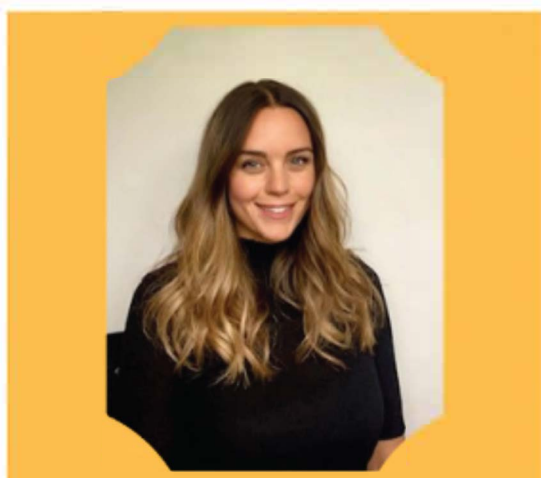

Alice Hatch on being a member of the Customer Scrutiny Panel

Celebrate safely

Explore this season's festivals and how to stay safe

We're creating communities

Chloe Frost on the work being done by Service Quality Managers

Running creative workshops

Find out about how Matipo Arts have been making a difference

We'd like to continue sending you information from time to time that's relevant to you as a Sage Homes customer. However, if you'd like to opt out of receiving this information please click here