

Hey, special ed. professionals!

We love you and are SO grateful for all you do for our families. The episode below was created just for you! We hope you listen in.

Tiffany Goodchild, the guest in this episode, worked as a special ed. professional for ten years before having her son Karter with severe disabilities. In this episode, she shares the things she has learned from the parent side that she WISHES she would have known as a professional.

You can listen to this insightful episode on any podcast platform, including the three below:

Love,
Madeline Cheney, Tiffany, and The Rare Life community

therarelifepodcast.com

@the\_rare\_life

The Rare Life Podcast