FAMILY UPDATES

sanpedropc.org

I met a delivery driver who passed along a wonderful compliment to San Pedro. Looking at the large pile of diapers, he commented, “Every time I drop something off, you guys are doing something good for people.”

On Wednesday our Mother’s Day men’s choir had their first rehearsal. On Thursday we paid for and packed 120 lunches for C.A.M. (Christian Assistance Ministries). Yesterday we celebrated the life of a saint, and today there will be a wedding ceremony after worship. Those were in addition to the regular programming, classes, and gatherings on our campus.

That’s what folks hear about in the newsletter, or encounter when they visit our campus. As we continue our study of Ephesians today, consider the unpublicized, unseen aspects of church life that nonetheless make a church a healthy spiritual place. As we’ll learn, there is a discipline every believer should embrace, and we’re starting something new today that will help all of us get in the habit.

God maintains a special love for His church. And never forget: you are the church.

Dr. Bruce Stamp

P. S. The flowers in the sanctuary are in celebration of Harry Baker and Alicia Jeffrey’s wedding this afternoon.
