

From Ukraine to the World: Agrisales B2B Initiative Showcases Top-Tier Products at SIAL Paris 2024

Agrisales B2B, a platform connecting Ukrainian agribusinesses with global buyers, is proud to announce its participation in SIAL Paris 2024. The initiative will showcase a diverse range of high-quality, sustainable food products from Ukraine, highlighting the country's resilience and commitment to exporting premium goods.

Despite the ongoing conflict, Ukrainian producers continue to thrive, offering a variety of products that meet international standards. Agrisales B2B has carefully selected 10 leading companies to represent the nation at SIAL Paris, including manufacturers of premium flour, pasta, confectionery, flakes, groats, and vegetable oils.

Participating Companies:

- Alviva Group
- Skvyrskyi Grain Processing Factory LLC
- Terra
- Amina
- TIKPACK LLC
- TM VILIA
- PE Vilis
- Grain Hub AG (MoverMill TM)
- Ekor TP
- Agroleader LLC

Agrisales B2B is dedicated to promoting Ukrainian companies on the global stage. Following the success of its pavilion at SIAL Paris, the initiative will also be present at Gulfood 2025 in the Middle East region. Through strategic marketing efforts and direct connections with international buyers, Agrisales B2B aims to facilitate sustainable trade partnerships and contribute to the growth of Ukrainian agribusiness.
