

From Crete to Global Markets: ALMPANTAKIS S.A. Presents Its Complete Olive Oil Portfolio at SIAL Paris

A Cretan family company with roots in olive growing since 1866 brings its broad portfolio of branded and private-label olive oil solutions to one of the world's leading food exhibitions.

ALMPANTAKIS S.A. - Cretan Mill will participate in SIAL Paris, presenting a wide portfolio of Cretan olive oils developed for international retail, foodservice and distribution channels.

The Almpantakis family has been active in olive growing since 1866. Today, the company combines generations of olive oil expertise with modern facilities for olive pressing, standardization and storage, supported by established quality assurance systems including ISO 22000, IFS, BRC and KOSHER.

At SIAL Paris, visitors will be able to discover Extra Virgin Olive Oil, Organic Extra Virgin Olive Oil, premium selections, aromatic and condiment olive oils, PDO Sitia Lasithi Crete products, olive pomace oil, gift solutions and a variety of packaging formats. ALMPANTAKIS S.A. also develops private-label products for customers around the world, based on existing products or tailored to specific market requirements.

The exhibition will provide an opportunity to meet importers, distributors, retailers and foodservice partners seeking authentic Cretan origin, consistent quality, flexible product solutions and long-term supply partnerships.

Portfolio highlights

- Extra Virgin & Organic Olive Oils
- Premium & Aromatic Olive Oil Selections
- PDO Sitia Lasithi Crete & Olive Pomace Oil
- Private Label & Multiple Packaging Formats

About ALMPANTAKIS S.A. - Cretan Mill

Based in Kalessa Maleviziou, Heraklion, Crete, ALMPANTAKIS S.A. produces, standardizes and markets Cretan olive oil for the Greek and international markets. Its portfolio includes branded products and private-label solutions across a broad range of olive oil categories and pack formats.