

Navigata Foods Private Limited is a Sri Lankan company located in an agricultural area. We focus on maintaining an efficient supply chain for organic, fresh fruits and specialise in producing dehydrated fruits sold globally. Our main products are dehydrated banana, papaya, mango, pineapple, and jackfruit. Our facility holds organic certification from the USDA and the European Union. Food safety is crucial for customer satisfaction, and we are certified under FSSC 22000. To meet customer needs, we offer flexible order volumes and customised packaging options.
