

PRESS RELEASE

FiveTwenty to Showcase its Premium Greek Food Collection at SIAL Paris 2026

Introduction

FiveTwenty will present its curated collection of premium Greek food products at SIAL Paris 2026, inviting distributors, importers and retail partners to discover authentic Mediterranean specialties with strong commercial potential.

FiveTwenty is a premium Greek food brand dedicated to bringing authentic Mediterranean flavours to international markets through carefully selected products made from exceptional raw ingredients.

At SIAL Paris 2026, visitors will discover our collection of premium Aegina pistachios and pistachio specialties, organic thyme honey, extra virgin olive oil, nut butters, organic pulses, gourmet seasonings and our award-winning APA craft beer.

Alongside our branded collection, FiveTwenty develops private label solutions for distributors, retailers and foodservice partners seeking premium Greek products with reliable supply and consistent quality.

Our team will be available throughout the exhibition to discuss exclusive distribution opportunities, private label projects and tailored product selections for international markets.

Founder Statement

“Our ambition is not simply to export products. We aim to build lasting partnerships by offering carefully selected Greek products that combine authenticity, consistent quality and real commercial value for our partners worldwide.”
