

PRESS RELEASE

Kydonakis Bros Presents Award-Winning Cretan Olive Oils at SIAL Paris 2026

The Cretan producer will showcase its branded range and complete private-label solutions for international retail, distribution and food-service partners.

Tympaki, Crete, Greece | 29 August 2026

Kydonakis Bros, producer and exporter of premium extra virgin olive oil from Crete, will participate in SIAL Paris 2026. Visitors will have the opportunity to discover the company's award-winning conventional and organic olive oils, including PDO Messara, PGI Crete and early harvest selections.

Rooted in the Messara region of southern Crete, the family company combines local olive-growing heritage with modern milling, bottling and quality-control capabilities. Its portfolio is centred on the Koroneiki variety and reflects the freshness, character and authenticity of Cretan extra virgin olive oil.

Private-label expertise for international markets

Alongside its own brands, Kydonakis Bros provides comprehensive private-label solutions for retailers, importers, distributors and food-service partners. Customers can select from conventional, organic, PDO Messara, PGI Crete and early harvest extra virgin olive oils, with a wide range of glass bottles and tins. Services cover oil selection, filling, labelling, packaging and export documentation.

With products supplied to 49 countries and a production system certified to internationally recognised standards, the company offers the flexibility, technical support and export experience required for long-term partnerships.
