SODIAL at SIAL Paris 2026: Showcasing the Expertise of Smoked Salmon

SODIAL will be exhibiting at SIAL Paris 2026, the leading international event for food and beverage professionals, taking place from 17 to 21 October 2026 at Paris-Nord Villepinte.

On this occasion, SODIAL will showcase its expertise in smoked salmon and present its range of products, including its premium, hand-sliced and never-frozen references.

SIAL Paris is also an opportunity for SODIAL to meet customers and partners, connect with new market players and present its ambitions for the years ahead.

“SIAL is a great opportunity for SODIAL to showcase our expertise, present our products and, above all, meet our partners and future customers.”
