DEN & FILS Showcases Haitian and Caribbean Specialties at SIAL Paris 2026

Paris, 2026, DEN & FILS, a food company specializing in the development and distribution of authentic Haitian and Caribbean products, will participate in SIAL Paris 2026, one of the leading international events for the food industry.

Through its SELAKAY brand, DEN & FILS will showcase a selection of products inspired by Haitian and Caribbean culinary traditions, including sauces, condiments, spices, seasonings, hot pepper pastes, Djon Djon-based products and other food specialties.

The company's participation will provide an opportunity to meet importers, distributors, wholesalers, retail chains, professional buyers and food-service operators from a wide range of international markets.

Already expanding its activities across Europe and Africa, particularly in Kenya and East Africa, DEN & FILS is strengthening its commercial relationships and developing new distribution opportunities for its products.

SIAL Paris also provides an opportunity to introduce international professionals to the richness and diversity of Haitian and Caribbean cuisine through a product range suitable for retail, wholesale and professional food-service markets.

"Our presence at SIAL Paris 2026 represents an important opportunity to meet international partners and introduce products with a strong culinary identity while responding to the expectations of today's markets."

Visitors, buyers and business partners will be able to meet the DEN & FILS / SELAKAY team during the exhibition to discuss products, distribution opportunities and potential commercial partnerships.
