

Enzel Global is strengthening its presence in Türkiye and global markets with its Let It Go and Nuttos brands.

Enzel Global , operating in international trade, food, and fast-moving consumer goods, continues to strengthen its position in the Turkish market and increase its effectiveness in global markets with its two strong brands, LetitGo and Nuttos .

Enzel Global manages its brands with a vision of sustainable growth through its high quality standards and strong operational infrastructure adopted in production, supply, import, and export processes. The company is positioned as a reliable business partner in both the domestic market and international trade.

LetitGo stands out as a brand that prioritizes quality and taste, catering to modern consumer expectations with its chocolate creams, jams, and select snack products. With its extensive dealer network and strong distribution structure, LetitGo is demonstrating stable growth throughout Turkey.

Nuttos positions itself as a brand that centers on natural ingredients, balanced flavor, and high product standards with its hazelnut and nut-based products. With its functional and value-added product approach, Nuttos aims to grow in both domestic and international markets.

Enzel Global, with its LetitGo and Nuttos brands, aims to create long-term value for its business partners and stakeholders by offering an integrated structure in product development, brand management, and distribution processes.

Enzel Global officials made the following statement regarding the matter:

"With our LetitGo and Nuttos brands, we cater to different consumer segments and create a brand ecosystem based on quality and trust. Our goal is to establish a strong brand structure in Turkey while ensuring sustainable growth in global markets."
