

GOOD NIGHT, BABY MOON

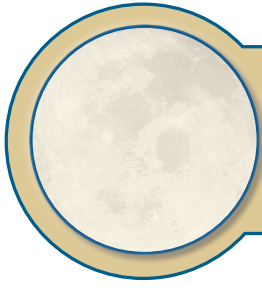

A bedtime tale about the moon

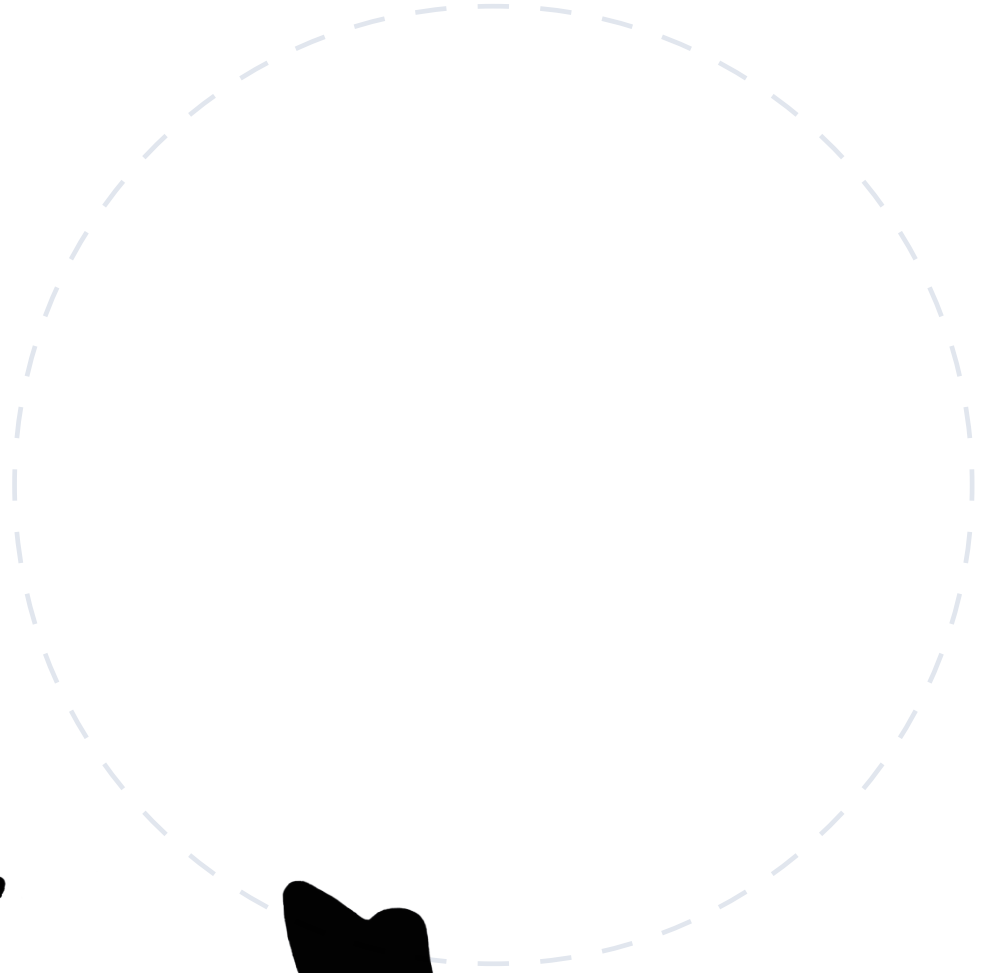

Toddler Time Activity Kit

GOOD NIGHT, BABY MOON

Toddler Time Activity Kit

Let's join the rabbits on their nighttime stroll!
The moon looks like a big round circle. It's a full moon!
Can you draw the full moon that they see?

The rabbits notice something different about the moon.
It seems half of it has disappeared. It's a half moon!
Can you draw the half moon that they see?

Let's match!

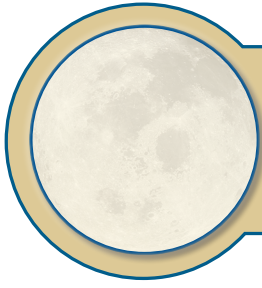

Now we know that when the moon goes away, it will always come back. But when it's in the sky, it can be different shapes. Can you follow the dots to match each name with the correct phase of the moon?

Host your own Good Night, Baby Moon toddler time event!

Encourage children and their guardians to come in their pajamas for a fun toddler time event in which you explore the phases of the moon!

Provide crayons (maybe even some glitter and glue) and enough activity kits for each child in attendance.

Print out the downloadable name tags included in this pack and encourage kids to color their own before they put it on.

Start with a circle time for introductions and read DK's Good Night, Baby Moon together. Kids can then branch off with their guardians to work on the activity kits.

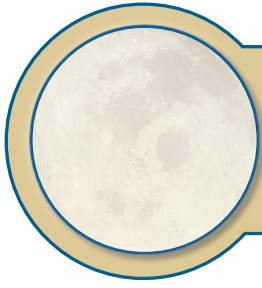

You can even wrap up your event with a fun sing-a-long about the phases of the moon.
