

Roman buildings today

There are still plenty of Roman buildings to be found in the lands where the Romans once ruled. These include palaces, temples, amphitheatres, aqueducts, great walls, and even whole towns.

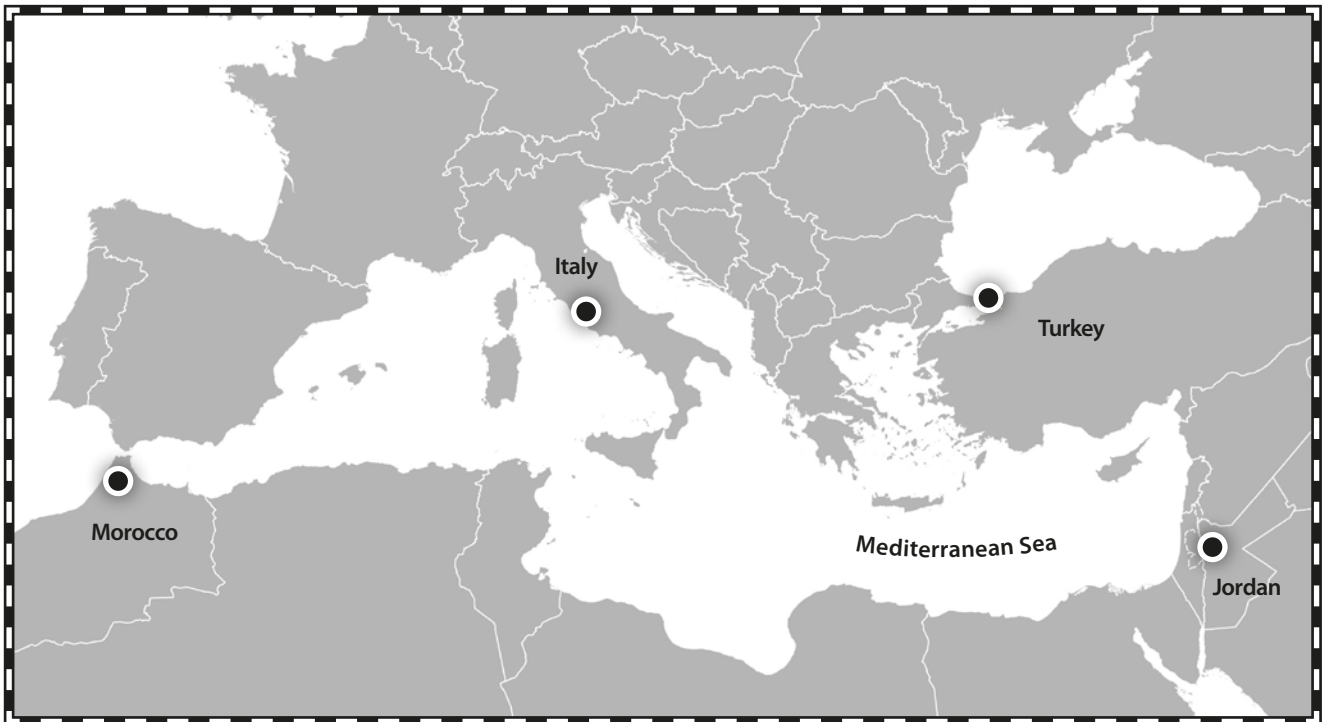

Can you match up the Roman site with the country it can be found in?

Walls of Constantinople
408–413CE

Forum of Jerash
(town centre)
1st century CE

Arch of Caracalla
(monument)
217CE

Colosseum
(amphitheatre)
70–80CE

Download the answer sheet at www.dkfindout.com/answers

