

A-maze-ing escape!

Life wasn't always easy for a dinosaur. Some of them, such as Tenontosaurus, couldn't easily defend themselves from attackers, and hungry predators could be lurking around every corner!

DRAW
a safe route through the maze. Tick the box by each predator you spot.

How do you say the names of these dinosaurs?

Hungry predators

Utahraptor
YOU-tah-RAP-tor
Most famous for its deadly claws, it was a fierce hunter.

Giganotosaurus
gig-AN-oh-toe-SORE-rus
This was a distant relative of Tyrannosaurus that lived about 30 million years earlier.

Tyrannosaurus
TIE-ran-oh-SORE-us
This was the king of dinosaurs, and maybe the most fearsome predator of all.

Carnotaurus
CAR-no-TAWR-us
Carnotaurus was a fairly large predator with thick horns above its eyes.

Deinonychus
dye-NON-ee-cuss
This was a small, but deadly pack hunter from the Cretaceous period.

Spinosaurus
SPINE-oh-SORE-us
The largest predator to ever walk the Earth.

I only eat plants, but these dinosaurs are scary!

Tenontosaurus
ten-NON-toe-SORE-us
END

Well done! But now I'm hungry...

Content taken from:
The Fact-Packed Activity Book: Dinosaurs