The rules

1. STARTING AREA

The start of the SCOTT Junior Trophy Pumptrack is close to the festival site (at the Asitz Bergbahn). The pumptrack will be signposted during the festival.

2. Race Procedure

The participants start in the respective categories, but individually on the pump track, beginning with the kids of the U 7. Each kid is called by name by the speaker. All participants ride two rounds on the pumptrack and the faster one will be included in the evaluation. The rounds will not be run one after the other, when all participants of the category have completed the first round, the second round will start. All participants can start an open training on the pump track from 9:30 am until the start of the first race.

Afterwards the following starters and categories will be announced. Therefore, the announcements of the speaker must be considered carefully! The next age group will be called out and all participants must arrive in time in the starting area. All riders should always remain within reach of the speaker in order to be able to hear his announcements.
