Enterprise Managed Services for IT Infrastructure and Data Resiliency

ABOUT US

Ascend Data Management, Inc. (ASCEND) is a locally owned organization providing SLA-based Enterprise IT Managed Services to different companies across the country. We provide clients with globally competitive solutions that will foster resilience and continuity to align with their different business demands.

IT Infrastructure Solutions

Infrastructure as a Service
Support business needs easily with a flexible cloud-like IT infrastructure available on demand.

Compute as a Service
Access advanced computing technologies to support different applications and use cases through a pay-as-you-go model

Storage as a Service
Easily manage storage utilization and consumption with a flexible and customizable cloud storage that can be deployed on-premise, on the cloud or hybrid.

Data Resiliency Solutions

Backup as a Service
Protect data from across your IT landscape while ensuring availability of reliability for quick operational restores.

Disaster Recovery as a Service
Recover swiftly from disruptive events, minimizing downtime and protecting critical data and systems.

Archive as a Service
Simplify management and access of archived data with a seamless, secure, and scalable solution

Airgap as a Service
Set up your company's last line of defense to safeguard your data from malicious attacks.