PART II - COMPREHENSION [20MARKS]

Leisure is an important need in our lives. It can be expressed as taking a little rest or relaxing after a hard day's work.

One's education or profession cannot be considered as one's leisure time activity. For example, a professional photographer may be busy even in his or her leisure time.

Modern city life can be burdensome. Everybody is overworked and nobody has the time to enjoy the natural environment or rest the mind and body. As a result, there is an increase in physical and mental disorders. Time set aside for leisure does not include time spent on things like smoking, gambling, gossiping and consuming liquor or being drunk'. It's an abuse of leisure. Observing a leisure time offers many benefits. One of these benefits is restored energy to work.

Going on picnics, taking long walks, reading books are good leisure time activities. By spending some time leisurely, will be able to prolong our lives.

- (a) What is Leisure?
- (b) What do you think gives us so much pressure in life?
- (c) Why do we need leisure?

(d) Write three (3) things that are rather abuse of leisure?

(e) What are the benefits of leisure?
