

Read a sample list of topics school essays 2014 year

At the time, the abolition of the outlet works caused a great resonance in society: someone is worried that it is now impossible to check the ability of children to properly Express their thoughts, someone was happy that was the end of the bias, someone did not pay attention to it. But less than five years, as the work returned to the practice of the final school test undergone changes, but keeping its noble purpose.

Source: Flickr.com

Children have to write an essay in December of this year in preparation for the exam: the results of the work students will be either admitted, or not admitted to a single state exam. But for the future of children, not adapted to this form of the exam, do not worry: the Ministry of education assured that in February or March nespravivshegosya students will be eligible to retake. To consider or not the scores obtained by the children for the paper – will decide the universities. While higher education institutions have discretion to add to the official results of the exam to ten points. The office noted:

It is important to understand that it all depends on the specialization: for the Humanities the results of work important to others may not be so.

Member of the Board for final works, a Moscow teacher-language and literature Sergei Volkov said that the day of the exam, the children get to choose from five themes, but for time zone assignments will vary, and therefore will not cancel. However, while not solved, is it possible to use on the exam works of art. However, if members come to believe that this is unnecessary, direct quotations are optional. It is important to note that unlike exam essays to grade will be your teacher and to rate them according to the system of pass-fail.

Source: Flickr.com

As warned earlier, the Minister of education and science Dmitry Livanov, of final essay topic will be announced directly on the exam, but the main lines will be made available to the public in advance. Today these areas have been formulated and announced publicly:

1. "No wonder all Russia remembers..." in the framework of this direction will be dedicated to the 200th anniversary of poet Mikhail Lermontov and characteristics of his poetry.
2. "The questions posed to humanity by war" – today's topical issue, which calls to reflect on the causes of war, their impact on people's lives, the moral choice of the person.
3. "Man and nature in the domestic and world literature" is the theme involving argument over the social, environmental, and aesthetic issues of our time.
4. "Dispute generations: together and apart" – the eternal for Russian literature the question concerning family values, problems of relationships between people of different ages, continuity and tradition.
5. "What men live by?" – philosophical direction, which gives an opportunity to reflect on values, people, ethical, philosophical and social aspects of life.

Source: Wikimedia.

According to Dmitry Livanov, announced direction was chosen, the widow of the great Russian classics Natalia Solzhenitsyn, and the preparation and wording was the Council on the conduct of the final works at the Ministry of education. Natalia Solzhenitsyn so thinking about your choice:

We tried to find directions to each of the topics gave the student an opportunity to Express your own experience, your thoughts and at the same time to seek support in classical literature.

As noted by the members of the Council, to return to the Soviet writings in a jingoistic spirit. The main purpose of new works – to encourage the child to think about. This will be reflected primarily on the wording of topics that will take more dialectical in nature (for example, instead of essay writing homework help "In life there is always a place for heroism" can be offered the theme of "Always in your life a feat?"). Sergei Volkov said:

The work was started <...>, to teach students to write. The last decade did not teach them this, and it has affected everything – even the business community, faced with almost a complete lack of press secretaries, is able to write a press release.

Well, a good start. Another thing is that still not finalized the methods of assessing compositions, the procedure of examination and its duration, this means that rumors about a return to old form can not be avoided. But, by and large, this is not the most important thing. The most important thing will be in December, when it will announce the first results of the exams, and we will have the unique opportunity to learn a little more about the new generation of children – what they think (and think if any) that they are worried and how well they can write about it. Intriguing, isn't it? Will wait.

According to the materials: Kommersant, "Moskovsky Komsomolets".