Q7 Write a paragraph of 120 words

a) Every cloud has a silver lining.

Every cloud has a silver lining, referring to the darkness that overpowers the glimmer of hope. In life, one faces situations, with no hope left in sight. No matter how bad the given situation might be, there is a light at the end of the tunnel.

It is suitable for somebody who is experiencing a loss at that moment. It could be personal or professional. There is a greater purpose in every difficulty if one see the larger picture.

It's in these moments of adversity that we often find hidden opportunities for growth and learning. For instance, setbacks might lead to new discoveries or insights, failures can pave the way for greater success, and difficult times can strengthen our resilience & character. Embracing this philosophy encourages us to seek out the positive, to find lessons in every experience, and to remain hopeful for better outcomes, even when faced with clouds of uncertainty or difficulty.
