Dr. Nela Murauer, CEO of JobRad® Loop, Named to Capital's "Top 40 Under 40" 2025

Dr. Nela Murauer, CEO of JobRad® Loop, has been recognized in Capital magazine's "Top 40 Under 40", an award that highlights young leaders making an impact through vision and innovation.

Munich, 14. November 2025 Since joining JobRad® Loop, Dr. Murauer has played a key role in shaping the company's development. As CEO, she oversees the company's core operational business, spanning purchasing, production, logistics, finance, and operational excellence. She brings more than ten years of experience from the BMW Group, most recently serving as Head of Joining Technology & Digitalization. There, she specialized in optimizing manufacturing processes and strengthening the integration of logistics and production. With a sharp focus on efficiency, sustainability, and innovative solutions, she continues to drive the advancement of JobRad® Loop's bike refurbishment operations.

Dr. Nela Murauer said: "Being named to Capital's "Top 40 Under 40" is a great honor and a strong recognition of our work at JobRad® Loop. Our goal is to make high-quality bicycles efficient, sustainable, and accessible to everyone. I'm excited to continue advancing this vision and shaping the future of mobility with our team."

The award highlights not only Murauer's outstanding leadership as a female CEO, but also her strong sense for market trends, her innovative mindset, and her commitment to building sustainable business processes. Through her work, she is setting new standards in the industry and inspiring people both inside and outside the company.

As part of the JobRad® Group, Dr. Murauer plays a key role in advancing the company's mission: professionally refurbishing high-quality pre-owned bicycles and keeping them in the loop for longer. At the heart of this approach are trusted quality, attractive pricing, and a clear contribution to environmentally friendly mobility.

Recognizing the Leaders of Tomorrow

The "Top 40 Under 40" list honors women and men who take responsibility, make bold decisions, and actively drive change. Winners are selected by an expert jury that identifies emerging leaders from business and politics. The award recipients are honored at the Top 40 Summit in Berlin, supported by Bain & Company.
