

YOUR DIGITAL WAY TO INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS

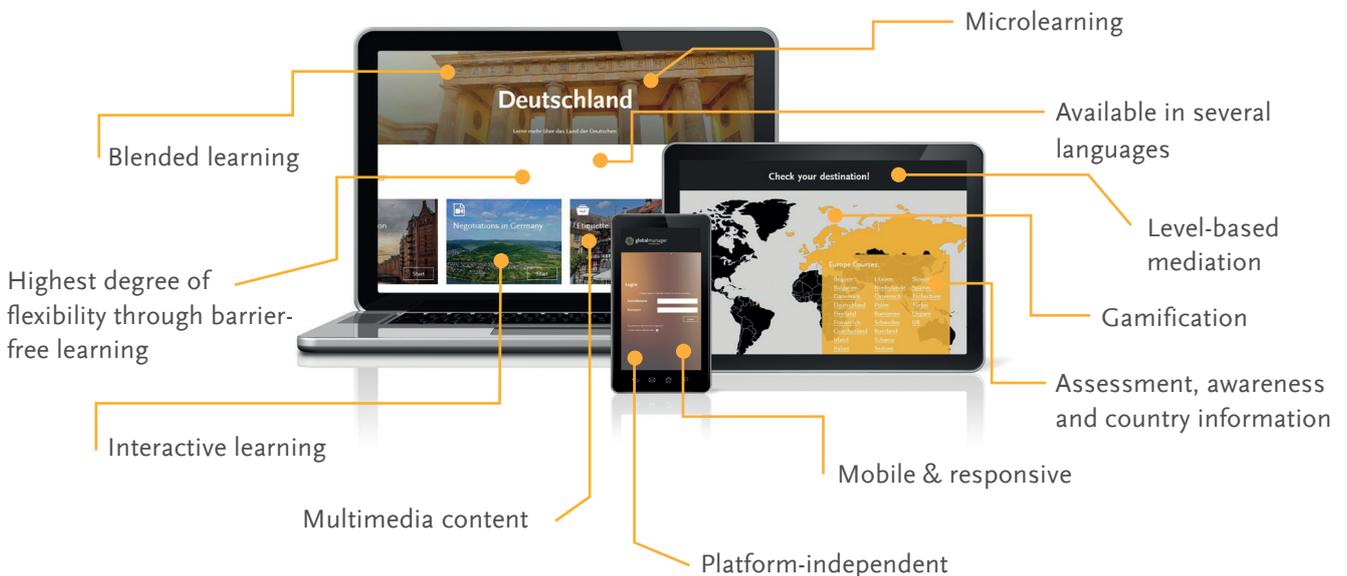

Benefit from the multiple award-winning e-learning solution

The globalmanager masterclass is the first level-based learning platform to support your employees in developing intercultural competences, which will guarantee the successful internationalization of your company.

The globalmanager masterclass offers your specialists and executives the ideal introduction to the topics of communication, negotiation skills and project management tailored specifically to their needs: Based on the learner's previous experience, the tool will recommend a level-based learning path. On sequential levels, the learner takes virtual courses in intercultural awareness, country-specific cultural knowledge or completes practical exercises on international cooperation. The content is subdivided into short and intuitive units that are designed to promote independent learning, and thus ensure sustainable learning success.
