

A Pod for Every Place Promo

50/10/22

Kimball International collaborated with research specialists to truly understand the authentic and real elements that drive employees. As a result of our research, we've uncovered that having a choice in where to work during the average day is unequivocally associated with higher performance. That flexibility is the driver that boosts happiness and productivity. Our PoppinPods can aid in improving these results, ultimately leading to an increase in overall happiness and camaraderie among employees and guests.

From now until June 30, 2023, make it easier to add a pod to every project by leveraging project discounting every day at 50/10/22.

Enjoy additional margin through June 30th.

To help you accelerate traction of PoppinPods in your market, we're offering a 50/10/22* discount on all Om and Kolo Pods from February 27, through June 30, 2023.

Use the following CDAs to receive the promotion discount:

- Standard, non-contract/non-CDA business: CDA 30006530
- Kimball International HealthTrust contract: CDA 30006531
- Kimball International Omnia Contract: CDA 30006589

*Existing Master Purchasing Agreements, dealer held contracts, and previously negotiated projects are not eligible for this promotion.

Promotion Details:

Discount applies to PoppinPods on orders received by Kimball International between February 27, 2023, and June 30, 2023.

If a list price increase occurs during the promotion period, the net price will increase accordingly, and will be determined by the promotion discount stated in the brochure. Any applicable surcharges are excluded from the discount.

At Kimball International, we strive to be your trusted and reliable go-to partner to create casual, comfortable spaces within healthcare environments.

From March 13th to June 30th, we're offering a 50/10/22 discount on all day-to-day, ancillary orders utilizing our Premier, Vizient, and Healthtrust contracts. From a caregiver's office to a waiting space, or a respite room to a collaborative area, we have the right products with great lead times, now at a deeper discount to help you create inspiring spaces. With five brands and health expertise at your fingertips, we can help you achieve the best outcomes for your customers.

Promotion Details:

The 50/10/22 dealer promotion discount is for all tiers, up to negotiable, for Ancillary products utilizing our Premier, Vizient, and HealthTrust contracts; member contract discounts and tiers still apply.

Promotion applies to orders submitted to Kimball International between March 13th - June 30th, 2023, and includes Kimball, National, Etc., Interwoven, and PoppinPods*.

*PoppinPods are currently only available through in our KII HealthTrust contract. Stay tuned for more information as we work to add PoppinPods to our other contracts.

Create Connections Lounge Promo

50/10/22

Kimball International offers thoughtful design and product solutions that make employees, clients, and guests feel like they are a part of something bigger. Through research, we examined healthcare, workplace, and education experiences. We learned that, more than ever before, employees are craving connections. From connecting to coworkers and mentors to having a connection to the space they occupy, this feeling can't be underestimated.

From now through June 30, 2023, create connections using our newest introductions and top selling lounge series, and receive a 50/10/22 discount.
