

Locker Solutions

The brands of Kimball International offer a variety of locker solutions to satisfy your storage needs. With a spectrum of options and capabilities, our lockers can be used in environments from shared areas to individual workstations. Not only do lockers contribute to keeping areas uncluttered, they can also be configured to create space dividers. From standard key locks to electronic keyless locking, with a variety of materials, finishes, and pulls, our locker solutions make it easy to store anything from personal belongings and jackets to backpacks and laptop bags.
