ANORA

Anora reimagines the classic tub chair, transcending it into a timeless masterpiece designed to grace today's modern spaces. With a hardwood panel that wraps the entire frame, Anora is a captivating statement piece with timeless sophistication.

Laney Bulteman is a creative force whose work seamlessly combines artistry with functionality. Anora's wood wrap was inspired by the irregular, flowing beauty of the Aurora Borealis. Often called "dancing ribbons of light", the Aurora Borealis features a mesmerizing display of dynamic patterns due to its constantly moving streams of light.
