January 2007

Issue #130

Editor's Message

The January meeting will feature Al Redline, from American Fastening systems, who will bring us information on pneumatic tools, and their uses in woodworking.

December Meeting

December's meeting was the bringing together of our year-long series of toy workshops. We'd made, as usual, so many tools for the kids served by Interface, that only a few of each workshop's items could be displayed on the stage. Interface's representative was on hand to thank us and assure that the toys were greatly appreciated by the kids. Each workshop host explained the construction details and thanked all of the members who participated. The toys were delivered the following day. The Bladerunner thanks Bill Aurand and Paul Brockway for photos.

Christmas Holiday Potluck Party

About 35 CVWA members and their significant others attended the potluck at the home of Stephen and Deena Case-Pall, on Dec 10th. If you missed this one, make a note to attend next year's. Most members participated in the gift exchange and brought really excellent examples of their work. Everyone was quite pleased with their gifts, and the opening of the gifts was pure fun, and the food was truly excellent.

CVWA President Honored

At the December meeting our president, Tim Albers was presented with a gift from all of the members for his outstanding dedication and contribution to our club over the years, and for serving as president two consecutive years. The gift was a Lie Nielson #5 ½ Bedrock Plane, the side of which bore an engraved inscription expressing the member's appreciation.

Upcoming Workshop

There will be a hand-plane fettling workshop on January 13th at Brady's shop. This is a chance to learn how to make your plane cut so well that no sanding is required. Bring your plane, either new, used, or antique (wood planes especially encouraged). Sign up at the January meeting.

Raffle Prizes

Prizes for January will be as follows:
Members' prize: Firm Grip Pro gloves and 25' tape measure.
Raffle: Stanley 18 ga. Brad Nailer
Johnson 4' Aluminium Level w. case.
DeWalt 25 pc. Pilot Point Drill set.
Porter-Cable 5" RO Sander Kit.

Marples Japanese Pull Saw
Bonus Bucket: Glue gun, glue & rags.

Election of Officers

It's time to start thinking seriously about electing officers for 2007. The best rewards of club membership come from participating in the workings of the club. If you would like to participate, please make your interest known to Tim Albers, or any member of the Board of Directors.
