Editors Corner

Proof that I have the biggest tool in CVWA. I now take over from Stephen Case-Paul the ownership of this coopers plane. I am available by appointment to demonstrate one-on-one how to slice off fingertips while jointing barrel staves (bring your own split oak staves and iron bands).

I hope that everyone enjoyed the auction as much as I did. Will

Robbins and his crew of volunteers did their usual superb job of running the auction.

We also need to thank our sponsors. Woodcraft of Ventura, Conejo Hardwoods, and Mayan Hardwoods for their generous donations to the auction.

There was much spirited bidding on some items and some incredible bargains. We raised enough to keep us going for another year.

October Auction

The Auctioneer

Once again, Brad did a great job of moving through all the items donated.

Registration

Checking out the donations.

Action.

This item comes with a free slipped disc.

And finally, checkout with our cheery and light hearted cashiers. Someone just asked Arlen about credit.
