President's Message

Isn't it amazing how fast the year is marching along? We all must be having a really good time.

A couple of reminders because of the fleet feet of time. First of all, it appears as if some of our good members have forgotten to update their dues payments. Have you paid your dues for this year?

Also, if you're making toys for the toy drive, don't forget that they get turned in at the November meeting so that we can present them before the Christmas season. If you're not making toys, why not? Wouldn't you like at least one of our clever wooden toys to have your uniquely talented touch on it? Some little kid who is having a difficult time in life might find some moments of comfort and pleasure by playing with the toy you create. Every kid loves to shove a toy truck along while saying "Vroom, vroom!"

Our next meeting, on July 11th, will be at Bill Aurand's house in Simi Valley. Don't go to our usual meeting place at Redwood School – they'll be closed. Instead, meet at Bill's house for our popular Stations meeting. Come see demos of lathe turning by Stephen Case-Pall, pyrography (making designs with wood-burning) by Stacy Gerlich, and Rande Bence showing us how to make his uniquely-designed crosses and other objects. I'm always impressed by the level of talent and breadth of interests of our club members – prepare to be impressed yet again!

And, my favorite, the Tiny Shop Tour is coming up on Saturday the 13th. You don't want to miss this opportunity to see how to do a lot with a little bit of space.

Our annual Summer Picnic is coming up on Saturday, August 3rd. I'd like to encourage you to contribute something for our traditional Silent Auction. I'm still enjoying the natural-edge tea tray that Charlie North made for a previous auction. Remember, it doesn't have to be a wood-related object. I remember some lovely jars of fruit preserves or jams that were highly sought after at a previous Picnic at the Handberg's home. I'm sure that there were some English muffins that benefited from that auction purchase – as well as the people who ate them!

September's challenge is a trivet that you make. They make great holiday presents, and there are lots more than a thousand and one designs. Let's see what you come up with.

Summer is just beginning, but it will be full of great activities for all of us. Why don't you plan to join us for all of them? You'll be glad you did.

June Program & Tour

Beth Goodnight of Goodnight & Co spoke about her set design and prop construction company. She gave a fantastic talk and explanation of what her company does. She's really succeeded in a male dominated business! Go Beth!

And then, on Saturday June 8th, about 30 club members and their families toured Goodnight & Co.

Think this is real wood? Think again.

Scorpion tail made for Ellen DeGeneres' TV game show "Ellen's Game of Games"

Totally awesome CnC Machine. Does 4 x 8 sheets without blinking an eye!
