& LAZINESS

EMMANUEL & GRACE MIMSHACH

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Grace and I appreciate the divine inspiration of the Holy Spirit, who gave us the enablement to serve our generation with timely applicable revelations. Our gratitude goes to All Father's of Faith in the body of Christ who have contributed to our growth and our dear Spiritual Father and mentor Apostle Joshua Selman, the editorial team and Kathizo Global family. God bless you all and Jesus Christ be praised.

DEDICATION

This Book is Dedicated to everyone seeking God for Deeper Knowledge, Divine Intervention and Breakthrough in all Spheres of Life.

EXCLUSIVE UPDATE

As you dive through these pages, remember that you are loved, accepted, and worthy - exactly as you are. Whether you're taking your first steps in faith or seeking a deeper connection, know that God's love and grace are available to you. As you read, expect the Spirit of God to brood over you, bringing revelation, transformation, and a deeper sense of His presence in your life. (Ezekiel 2:2).

Chapter One

I UNDERSTAND

I don't know why things aren't working for me, I'm working on myself, I'm trying my best. These are your usual statements, not because you're not trying but you realized that your effort to keep up with schedules, plans and vision, doesn't amount to anything. All these are said from the place of frustration and not complaint, and I totally understand. You'll start a thing and not finish them, you always have great plans and visions but you do not bring them to realization, most times, you think you need a push, someone who will challenge you to be the best version of yourself, you feel so much like a machine that is already weak yet trying to keep on the job allotted to do.

I know you have tried to work on yourself over and over again, you have prayed, attended many conferences, and even put systems in place to push you into achieving desired goals. I totally understand you, my dearest reader. I can feel the pain in your heart while you pick this book, because you earnestly want an end to this, and it's definitely going to end.

The design of a fulfilled life is to start and bring to completion. God created the heavens and the earth and made sure he finished it in 7 days. If you look at the entire Genesis 1 & 2 you will see the push to start and finish was available. I know that people around you, and some of your friends do great things, you admire their courage, and wish to be like them, but the irony is, your friends, mentors and the people around you are seeing so much value in you, they can attest to the potential in your academics, ministry, music, tech, business and career path. They know how great you are, you have great ideas and plans, in fact they know the level of wisdom at which you speak, but your problem is transiting your ideas, passions, faith, and visions into achievable results, within a set timeframe, because consistency is the vehicle to having result and the only limitation is procrastination and laziness.

When we say laziness, it refers to the inability or lack of strength to push any further, the passion is available, but the consistency is not there, so Mark 14 vs. 38 has become your consolidation scripture “the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak...” the word spirit here means “pneuma” and it's a small letter “s” meaning it's not talking about the Holy Spirit. Jesus was talking about the Inner spirit, your inner energy, the word “ready” here means “prothumos” that means it's willing, ready and available. It's from the spirit that ideas, resolution and visions are created, Job 32 vs. 8

“But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding”

Amazing, I will love you to read it again.

This is to say everything about your destiny is stored in your spirit. So the visions and plans of God for your life come from God but you receive it as an inspiration, because the inspiration you receive is God's voice to your inner spirit. Inspiration to write, study, pray and fast, ideas and visions about a business, revelational dreams pointing you to a direction, plans on savings and getting your songs recorded, inner voice of starting a ministerial assignment, all of these comes as an inspiration to your spirit. They are all ready, waiting to manifest till the results are seen by all, but Jesus said “the flesh, ‘sarx’ is weak”. Weak to continue and process this inner energy to produce results.

If we look deep into your spirit we can see a well of possibilities, ideas and visions, no wonder you keep dreaming and people keep seeing things about you often, it's because your spirit is so full of ideas, plans, visions and goals. You could feel in your spirit the need to do some certain things, you could sense the push, but your will, the personality in your body responsible for continuity and persistence is not dead but weak.

When the Bible says weak it means “asthenēs” meaning strengthless, impotent, sick, that means it's still alive but weak, there's no much strength. The strength is available to do menial work, but not to do a great business, the strength can carry you to party but not to pray, the strength to make love, have fun but not for fasting and study of God's word, the strength can carry you to a conference but can't replicate your own conference. This means your will is alive but the strength is very weak to carry plans, tasks, vision and passion. So the Bible said it's impotent, this is likened to an impotent man, whose desire for sex is available, but the most painful thing is that, the expression of it is not available, that's how your will is. You know what to do, you see a business and know this should have been you, you see an excellent student and you could have been that one, if only you had the strength to study and read.

Lastly, the Bible called it sick, that means something has affected that will. If something is sick, this means it has been infected by bacterial, virus or parasite, and the next thing to do is not to watch, but the next line of action is to treat that person till he or she becomes healthy or else they will die.

Your destiny can not die like this, your business, passion, ministry, academics and goals can't die like this, you're too heavenly invested on by God to fail in destiny, and that's why this book is here to bring you into the right track, and bring your will back alive from impotency and lack of strength, so that you can become an achiever, and a giant that manifest magnificent result in life and destiny, let's move to the next chapter.

Chapter Two

WHERE IT IS GOING

Psalm 13 vs. 3... “lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death”...

It's when I saw this scripture some years ago, I realized there is a kind of sleep that leads to death. The greek word for sleep is “yâshên” meaning to stay long in a position or become unmovable at a spot. He said the more you remain at that level, the more you become closer to death. Revelationally in chapter two, we start to talk about the three characteristics that represent laziness and procrastination that can limit a man from manifesting their idea, passion, plans, visions and task in the inner spirit of a man. And the Bible revealed that sickness, impotency and lack of strength, all makes a person immovable. At this point sleep has taken over.

Remember the experience of Jesus Christ and his disciples on the mountain, at that point the entire history of humanity was about to change by Judas' betrayal, because without Judas betrayal on that mountain, we won't be here free and blessed. At this critical time that the heaven was about to finally win the chess game over Satan, the disciples were all asleep. Sleeping under transition, sleeping when seasons are about to change, sleeping in the midst of opportunity, that kind of sleep usually leads to death. I want you to know the death we're referring to here is not a physical death, but a state of failure, irrelevance and poverty. It's a state of uselessness and lack of success at the end of life.

The grave is not a location rather a state of life. We have many walking dead (dead but alive) on earth, some are in offices, some at home and in classes. And that's why the Bible said something very profound and as a preacher I have been worried about it for years, let's look at the scripture below.

Mathew 26:11 “For ye have the poor always with you”....

Mark 14:7 “For ye have the poor with you always”...

John 12:8 “For the poor always ye have with you”...

These three accounts revealed the exact speakings of Jesus Christ. I kept asking myself a question, what's the need of preaching to bring people out of poverty, why the poverty eradication scheme in nations?

Afterall Jesus Christ said, the poor will always be with us. Does it mean that some people were destined to be poor in life? But I found my answer, NO! People are not destined to be poor, in fact king Solomon gave an answer in Ecclesiastes 9 vs. 11 “I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all”.

This means every destiny has been given a chance to be great and wealthy, but the reason for Poverty and failure is that they missed their time and chance which the mercy of God keeps bringing over and over again, and what's responsible for this is laziness and procrastination to instructions, to inspiration and burdens God place in their heart.

For some, early in the morning God place a kind of thought or burden in their hearts for something in their field or ministry, some God begins to place a burden for fasting and prayers, others is consistency in something, and some it's like an idea planned out but haven't been worked upon, and one thing about ideas, visions and inspiration is that they are time bound.

Remember “seed-time and harvest”

“idea-time and harvest” “vision-time and harvest” “burden-time and harvest” “prayer-time and harvest”

You will realize that harvest doesn't have time, but others do. This is because everything is time bound, once it's missed, it takes the mercy of God, and that's why this book is written to bring you answers.

Do you want to be the average person
we will always have?

Do you want to be the failure we will always have?

Do you want to be the one who bites
the finger of regret in life and destiny?

Do you want your company or organization to be one of the mediocre organization in the world?

My dear reader, I want you to know that your failure is someone's failure, because lives are attached to your destiny, once you fail, they will automatically fail because life is like a chain. When someone gets affected, it reflects on others. The reason there is so much unemployment rate in your nation is because the private companies aren't so many to create employment, and this is because there are people destined to have multiple companies but laziness and procrastination affected their progress. Some didn't start, some started but didn't continue, and few who progressed didn't give their best, and that's why we have beggars, thieves, countless suicide, depressed people because of One man's attitude.

It's important you know that your current state of life is affecting someone's progress. Someone is about to fail in life, if you continue this way. Remember in the upper room when Apostle Peter gave that speech, 5,000 people received the life of Christ, but what if Peter never came back to Jesus Christ again because of guilt and condemnation? 5,000 souls would have been lost.

My dear reader, don't be the cause of other's death, failure, depression and poverty. It's time to deal with Procrastination and laziness by all means, so that your ideas, visions and burdens with daily tasks can become a great result for someone's joy and hope.

Selah!

Chapter Three

BORROWED CHAIR

Well done dear reader.
Welcome to chapter three,
your dedication to reading till this point, is a great progress. How are you doing today? I want to believe you're fine!

There is something that has been of concern to us for years. There is a popular saying over the years that “teenagers and youths are the leaders of tomorrow”, that they are going to be the wealthy, and great men in their society. But as each generation passes, we keep seeing many of the supposed leaders and great youth unemployed, some below average, many hardly have the great and luxurious life they dreamt of, and few among them died of suicidal thoughts, and the most painful of it is our ladies. They grow to become sex workers for interviewers, some go through hell in marriages and some ladies are afraid to go into another relationship because of past hurt from a broken relationship.

Everywhere seems to be from one drama after another, one tears of pain to another, you turn from houses to houses, same stories and this passes down from one generation to another generation.

Grace and I on one faithful day, sat together to analyze something, our discussions are always on research and analysis. We talk about deep things and find how to solve them. On this particular day, we looked at the reason young people from one generation to another don't do well. Out of 100 youth we can only record 10% out of them living an outstanding and their dreamed or desired life.

There are two kinds of life, a dreamed life and destined life, in which a balanced and blessed person is meant to have both. A life others would love to emulate and live, that they can check God's desire for them and realize they are living up to expectation and fulfilling them.

We realized only 10% of young people below 40 years of age can say they achieved certain levels of result. This became a concern because if we do not deal with the root, we will keep praying and accusing the devil and even the economy for everything. We were directed by God to a scripture. John 2 vs. 4 “Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee”?

So when we had finished reading this scripture over and over again, we were dazed because when God directs you to a scripture, it looks so funny and confusing sometimes. You will have to ask yourself why. So God directed us to read again, and we saw something mind-blowing, “Woman, what have I to do with thee”? We looked at another translation, Jesus said to her, “Woman, this is not your business”(BBE), and I heard a voice so quietly saying family and destiny cannot correlate. I was surprised to hear that so I didn't agree with him. He directed us to Mathew 12 vs. 46 -50 “While he still talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother”.

Immediately I read the scripture, I realised what He was saying, because in that scripture you will notice that Jesus Christ was teaching and raising a set of people. He was playing out his destined assignment and suddenly His family came to the house where He was teaching the gospel, but his parents and families were not in there with him, they rather stood outside and demanded for his presence. This is literally likened to putting Jesus in a condition to choose between the people, and them, choose between destiny and family, choose between your goals, visions and family, and Jesus Christ said something powerful, that His assignment and destiny are

His family, and I found my answer as to why many are failing.

The reason many youths below 40 years become average and have an unfulfilled life is because they depend on family and the people around them.

They live their lives on hope and dependency, they allow family and promises from men to keep them on a spot of waiting rather than moving.

They have placed their goals, plans, visions and aspirations in the hands of men, parents, guardians and family's possessions. Then I realized why Jesus Christ made sure He conquered this spirit of dependency and hope on men. This is the reason we have so many unfulfilled dreams, all because the dreamer is waiting for money from a family member to start something. The dreamer is waiting for a promise from a friend, the dreamer is waiting for a prayer partner, or a man/woman to push them to financial liberation.

We are in a generation where ladies see marriage as a means of financial liberation, you could look at them and see no value, both intellectually and skill wise, they have nothing to offer than to satisfy their lustful appetite.

What a generation! When people wake up living their life on hope, it's a dangerous thing to hope on an uncle's promise, a government promise, a spiritual father's promise, you can't be fulfilled this way. Let me state something clear, the success of someone around you is not your success. The richest man's wealth in your vicinity isn't yours, because if it was yours, you could have been like them. The success of your uncle isn't yours, the wealth of your parents aren't yours, you are only privileged to be a part of it. Wake up from this sleep of hope, and hold your own destiny by yourself, don't wait for people to climb the ladder of success so that you can be a part of their poverty eradication scheme, don't allow yourself to become a principle a rich man is applying for his lifting, why not also become the rich who apply the principle of prosperity to others. This can only happen when you stand up from that chair, it isn't yours. You're sitting on a borrowed chair, stand up and look for yours. The giver is only giving you, perhaps on pity, family ties, or maybe you are his friend and this giving won't last forever, why not get your own and rule your destiny by yourself. Rule your finances, decisions, spiritual life and emotion. Must you keep waiting for family members to match make you with a rich man's son to marry?

I realised God didn't bring you to a family, he only made you pass through a family, it's just like an airport, you need to go through the airport before you arrive at your destination. You are privileged to be in that family through which you can now fulfill your destiny and assignment. Your family can not fulfill destiny for you, your spouse can only try but can't do all, your friends and everyone around you have theirs to accomplish. It's time for you to realise this and wake up from the sleep of hope, dependency and family trust and push ahead as if you have no one. Spend time with God as if you're the only Christian on earth, work on yourself, give yourself tasks and plans as though you have no spouse, I write again, “Nobody's success is your success”.

Chapter Four

THEY SPEAK

I realized very early in life that situations speak. Everything that is happening or has happened around you speaks. You might not hear a loud voice but your soul and mind has picked the voice. Something profound happened in the Bible, worthy of learning for everyone and it's about Naomi and her two daughters-in-law Ruth & Orpah. Read the scripture below to understand what I'm about to share. I understand sometimes it's very normal to want to flip through Scriptures or even skip some verses while reading, but don't skip this one, read to the end. Smiles!

Ruth 1 vs 4 -14

“And they took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them; and the woman was left with her two sons and her husband.

Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD had visited his people in giving them bread. Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her; and they went on the way to return unto the land of Judah. And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me. The LORD grant you that ye may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband. Then she kissed them; and they lifted up their voices, and wept.

And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me?

Are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons; note Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters;

for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me. And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clawed unto her.

Great! Well done for reading carefully, you will notice something in this scripture that Naomi had two sons, One got married to Ruth and the other to Orpah, and both died simultaneously. A point came that Naomi was tired of staying in Moab and wanted to return to Judah, because she heard that God has blessed Judah, which is her land and country. So as this opportunity was waiting for her, likewise for Ruth and Orpah to explore. Bear this in mind, God was arranging Boaz as a good and lovely husband for Ruth over there. I am sure an opportunity was also waiting for Orpah in Judah, but she couldn't conquer the voice of her situation. How? When Naomi was about to enter her rest in Judah, she asked them to go back. At that point for Naomi, it wasn't her speaking, it was the voice of defeat, failure, hurt and depression.

“And Naomi said unto her two daughters in law, Go, return each to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me and they refused and she spoke again And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? Are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? And she spoke again the last time. Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? Would ye stay for them from having husbands? Nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.”

And at that moment Orpah couldn't resist the voice of the situation coming out of Naomi, and at that point Orpah's name in the bible ceased to be mentioned, because the voice of the situation affected her.

What if Ruth had given in? She would have lost Boaz, we have so many Orpah on earth right now who are accepting the voice of Naomi, the voice that comes from defeat, failure and depression. They lost themselves to sexual immorality and sin and the voice has stopped them from praying and fasting, some embark on a project, just because it failed, they have accepted defeat and have no strength to push again.

What shall we say about people that came from a family where they have been written off just like Gideon? He was from a poor family and as such was written off among his brethren in Israel but God was seeing a mighty man. What your parents tell you does not matter, what your friend sees about you does not matter, what guilt and condemnation tells you doesn't matter.

My dear reader, what your class teacher and course results say about you does not matter, because EL-ROI is seeing greatness and might in you.

He isn't seeing failure, even if you have failed many times, even if you are not intelligent academically, even if you are already in your late 50's and it feels all hope is lost, EL-ROI is seeing another Abraham who is about to be famous at old age.

Who told you about yourself? Who is feeding you with information that is killing your spirit? That voice of challenges, that voice of heartbreaks, academics, career and ministerial failure has registered a language in your spirit, just like Philip and Nathaniel said to themselves, “can anything Good come out of Nazareth”? Why did they say so, it is because the last famous person called Samson failed, and the voice of that situation registered in them, they do not think someone better and greater than Samson can rise. They believed that Samson was the last famous person whose influence made them to be famous and respected amidst neighboring villages, but Jesus Christ of Nazareth came because Philip said to Nathaniel “Surely Come and See”

Can you also respond to your fear, defeat and hurt, that they should desist from you and come and see the new you? Can you make your life a wonder again? Let families who do not believe in you come and see after some years, let the members that left your ministry come and see after some while, let your lecturer who failed you come and see in the next semester, it's time for you to make your life a come and see challenge. Do not let people conclude your life for you, do not allow statement like “we said it, we know it will turn out like this, don't give room for he can't do much, never agree to he is just somewhere living with his wife and children, it's time to blow the whistle of come and see, let them come see the greatness in you. Let them come and see the once rejected stone who has become the chief cornerstone, one who is wealthy, who has a successful career, one who is doing well both in ministry and spiritually.

Chapter Five

PRECEPTS UPON PRECEPTS

Isaiah 28:10 "For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little;

For years I have looked at this scripture, and I kept passing over it again and again, until I found something interesting one day. And the word "For precept must be upon precept" dawned on me. This means it's a must, it's a static law and principle that is precepts must be upon precepts. But what is a precept? "tsâv" means a command upon a command, that means it's in layers and steps.

So I began to realise that visions are step after step, layer after layer. I then realised that the difference between a successful person and a failed person is knowing how to bring their vision into achievable goals.

There is a difference between vision and goals, successful people are not just visionary but they are goal getters, while unsuccessful people in any field are results of lack of goals not vision.

Remember in chapter two we said that the problem is not that you don't have ideas, visions or passion, but the problem here is that you don't have goals to bring them to pass. Goals upon Goals leads to success. I cannot just appear into success, because greatness doesn't happen that way, many people want to appear into fame, prosperity, marriage and attain spiritual grace and power. You don't just start praying for 5 hours or fasting and studying your Bible for many hours. If you appear suddenly, you will realize you can't maintain it, and that's why you discover that money that comes from quick schemes don't last, because you appear suddenly into wealth, and you can't sustain it.

Proverb 28 vs. 22 “He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him”.

Every goal you achieve brings you experience and wisdom, and the more you advance, the more experienced and wiser you become. And these are what you need to sustain the success.

You cannot have a vision and want it all carried out within a short time.

You cannot wake up and desire to pray for 10 hours just like that, everything starts from a little beginning. If you want to be consistent in prayers, start with 30 minutes every day, if you want to work on your career, finances or any other areas, then start with smaller goals. Smaller goals help solidify your conviction to push for more, but starting with bigger goals may tear you apart, and this will affect your joy and faith to push again. The foundation of a house is built just in a small line around the land circumference, but when they start to build on the foundation it now become an edifice, but from the foundation it doesn't look like it, that's what we mean by goals.

Break your visions, plans, passions and inspiration down into smaller goals, something you can achieve. Once you're done, go after another one, before the year runs out, you would look back to discover how great your plans, visions and aspirations have grown to become.

Jesus Christ said something profound in Mark 4 vs. 28 -29 “For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the BLADE , then the EAR, after that the FULL CORN in the ear, but when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the SICKLE, because the HARVEST is come”.

Do you see the progression? The people's results that you admire and wish it was you, did not just happen in a day or a year, it took time, from one goal after the other, and that's why you get frustrated at some point, that's why you see Procrastination and laziness creeps in because you're scared by how big the tasks are becoming.

You view the vision and it looks so enormous and large, but if David could kill Goliath with a stone, a small stone that means big vision can be achieved with small consistent goals.

From one step to another, gradually you finish one after the other, until you reach that point, it's going to be slow but steady, that's what can get you ready to take over your dreams and Visions. Therefore break your visions, passion, dreams and inspiration first into small achievable goals and start, then move on gradually.

Lastly, as you break them down to small achievable goals, give yourself to mentorship. It could be someone around you, either far or near, someone you can be accountable to.

Someone who is intentional about your progress, it helps you achieve your goals faster, it places you under check and reminders, and this will help you become exceptional amidst your peers after some years.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Emmanuel & Grace Mimshach are an apostolic and prophetic couple commissioned to bring liberation through salvation, transformation, empowerment, and signs and wonders. Their ministry arms include:

Kathizo ("Tarry" – Luke 24:49): A weekly interdenominational program held every Wednesday in Ayingba and Fridays in Lokoja, Nigeria. With over 50 transformational free eBooks, they hold signs and wonders meetings in Kathizo monthly, with a popular monthly TikTok live meeting called Gen-Z Prays.

Also, Kathizo has a missions arm with a mandate of the Intimacy Campaign, focused on empowering teenagers to communicate with the Holy Spirit.

Finally, Kathizo Seven Mountain School (KSMS), a three-month mentorship program in Ayingba, Nigeria, equips believers to impact their sphere of influence, with certificates and empowerment for influence and wealth.

Their mandate has brought transformation, miracles, and blessings to many lives, churches, and territories as they travel from one location to another.
