Through this evaluation process presented proposed strategic themes: 1) Financial Sustainability & Growth, 2) Workforce Stabilization, 3) Community Partnerships, 4) Service & Quality and 5) Community Relations. Board Chair Herrin requested a 15- minute break at 2:45 pm. The Board returned to open session at 3:00 pm. Erica Osborne noted from the themes we add a layer of goals that are broad but descriptive. Small workgroups were created to review and refine the proposed goals for Erica and Linda to take back and include in the final summary. The small groups prioritized two to three goals under each theme, noting we could combine Community Partnerships and Community Relations. Erica and Linda will draft a retreat summary and action plan over the next two weeks. Commissioner McMahan enjoyed the retreat and so proud of the staff. Commissioner Frady echoed great staff and excited to be around the Board table again. Commissioner Coppock is ready for the new goals. Board Chair Herrin thanked both Erica and Linda for the retreat. Commissioner McMahan moved	lofty and could have more hope for the future.
