Transitioning from Pediatrics to an Adult Model of Healthcare:

The 6th Annual CCS Transition Conference

This is a save-the-date invitation to attend the 2018 California Children's Services Transition Conference.

Scholarly literature is rich in identifying the issues of transitioning children with special health care needs from a pediatric to an adult model of healthcare. The gap in scholarship is how to facilitate effective transitions. The purpose of annual CCS Transition Conference is to dedicate a venue that informs CCS adolescents, their families, and medical providers of transition issues and solutions.

The first half of the conference is dedicated to CME and Nursing CEU activities:

- Transition Medicine: The Continuity of Pediatric to Adult- Centered Care

Niraj Sharma, MD, MPH

Director, Internal Medicine-Pediatrics Unit

Program Director, Pediatrics Residency

Brigham and Women's and Boston Children's Hospitals

Harvard Medical School

- Health Care Transition Panel Discussion

Patrick Burke, MD, MHCDS

Pediatric Hospitalist

Director of Young Adult and Transitional Care Programs

Valley Children's Medical Foundation

- Building a Best Practice Model for Transitioning CCS Adolescents

Tony Pallitto, MSA-HCM, California Children's Services

B.J. Moore, Ph.D., M.S, MPA, California State University Bakersfield

- Type 1 Diabetes Special Topics

Nedim Cakan, M.D, Medical Director, Department of Endocrinology, Valley Children's Health Care

Denise McEowen, R.N., C.D.E, Valley Children's Health Care

Martha Najera, BSN/PHN, California Children's Services
